2. How super works

What you need to know about super

You generally have the choice where your employer makes your super contributions. It's compulsory for contributions to be made to super for most working Australians. Super is generally a tax-effective way to save for your retirement—tax concessions and other government benefits can make it one of the best long-term investments you have.

Contributing to your super

Regular contributions are a great way to help your super grow. Your employer generally makes super guarantee contributions (also known as employer contributions), and your super can be boosted with other types of contributions, if eligible, including:

- salary sacrifice contributions
- personal after-tax contributions
- spouse contributions (made to your account by your spouse),
- government co-contributions, and
- downsizer contributions.

You can make additional contributions to your account by BPAY® or direct debit. You can also set up regular contributions by direct debit. There are caps on the amount you can contribute to super. If you exceed these caps you may pay additional tax.

® Registered to BPAY Pty Ltd ABN 69 079 137 518

Bringing all your super together

Keeping your super in one place can make sense. You can generally transfer any other super accounts you have into your Super account. Doing this gives you a single view of your super, helps you keep track of your investments, and means you only pay one set of fees. Before consolidating, you should check if there are any costs involved, loss of insurance that's important to you, any difference in fees charged or any benefits you wish to keep. You should consider speaking with a financial adviser to make sure it's the right decision for you.

Accessing your super

Super is designed to support you in retirement, so there are restrictions on when you can access it. To access your super, you must meet a condition of release, such as:

- reaching age 65
- reaching preservation age and permanently retiring
- ceasing an employment arrangement on or after the age of 60
- reaching preservation age and starting a transition-to-retirement pension
- becoming permanently incapacitated, or
- having a terminal medical condition.

Once you meet a condition of release, you're able to withdraw your super as a lump sum or transfer your super to a pension account to start an income stream.

There are other circumstances where you may be able to access your super including:

- under the First Home Super Saver Scheme
- if you're a temporary resident and you permanently leave Australia once your visa has expired
- severe financial hardship, or
- compassionate grounds.

What happens to your super if you pass away?

Your super and any insurance you hold in the Fund can be paid to your beneficiaries or estate if you pass away. We offer binding nominations. A binding beneficiary nomination, if valid, allows you to decide where your benefit is paid. For pensions, you can also have a reversionary beneficiary nomination which allows you to select who you would like to continue receiving your pension payments if you pass away. If you haven't nominated a beneficiary or if your nomination is invalid, we identify any potential beneficiaries and communicate with them. We then give careful consideration to what we believe is an appropriate distribution of your benefit, having regard to your recorded preferences.

Your account balance (excluding pension accounts with a reversionary beneficiary nomination) will be switched into MLC Cash on the date we receive notification of your death. If you have a pension account with a reversionary beneficiary nomination, the account balance will remain in your chosen investment option(s) and pension payments will be suspended. On completion of the claim, pension payments will restart and will be paid to your reversionary beneficiary.

We'll switch off any Adviser Service Fees being paid to your adviser and stop charging insurance premiums once we're notified of your death. Any Adviser Service Fees and insurance premiums charged between the date of death and the notification of death will be refunded along with the final benefit payment.

We'll continue to charge all other fees and costs set out in section 6 until your Death Benefit is paid to your estate and/or beneficiaries.

You should speak with your financial or legal adviser for more information on estate planning. You can view the Beneficiary Nomination form available at mlc.com.au/forms_and_brochures for more information.

The law defines your eligibility to contribute, types of contributions you can make (or others can make on your behalf), and limits on contributions, including the maximum amount you can contribute before paying additional tax. It also sets strict limitations on when you can withdraw your super. Generally, you can access your super after you reach preservation age and retire, or if you satisfy another condition of release.

4. Risks of super

Like any investment, super has risks

Before you invest, there are some things you need to consider. How much risk you're prepared to accept is determined by various factors, including:

- your investment goals
- the savings you'll need to reach these goals
- your age and how many years you have to invest
- where your other assets are invested
- the return you may expect from your investments, and
- how comfortable you are with investment risk.

You should read the important information about the risks of investing in the Investment Menu before making a decision. Go to mlc.com.au/pds/mkspf

The material relating to risks may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

Investment risk

All investments come with some risk. Some investment options will have more risk than others, as it depends on an option's investment strategy and assets.

The value of an investment with a higher level of risk will tend to rise and fall more often and by greater amounts than investments with lower levels of risk, ie it's more volatile.

While it may seem confronting, investment risk is a normal part of investing. Without it you may not get the returns you need to reach your investment goals. This is known as the risk/return trade-off.

When choosing your investment option, it's important to understand that:

- its value and returns will vary over time
- assets with higher long-term return potential usually have higher levels of short-term risk
- returns aren't guaranteed and you may lose money
- future returns will differ from past returns, and
- your future super balance (including contributions and returns) may not be enough to provide sufficiently for your retirement.

Laws affecting super may change, impacting your retirement savings.

Your financial adviser can help you respond to any changes to laws on super, social security and other retirement issues.

5. How we invest your money

Choose the investment option that's right for you

You can choose from any of our range of investment options. We've provided a summary of our investment option, MLC Balanced, below. All other options are shown in our Investment Menu.

When choosing your investment option, you should consider the risk, likely return, and investment time frame.

We may change the investment objective, investment approach, strategic asset allocation and ranges in each investment option, or add new, suspend or remove investment options at any time without prior notice to members. We'll notify you of material or significant changes in accordance with the law, which may be before or after the change.

Up-to-date information is available at mlc.com.au

You can switch between investment options at any time, but there are limits to the frequency of investment switches you can make. For further information on switching limits see the Investment Menu or log in to your account online at mlc.com.au

You should read the important information about each of the investment options and the investment approach, including labour standards or environmental, social or ethical considerations and the Standard Risk Measure in the Investment Menu before making a decision. Go to mlc.com.au/pds/mkspf

The material relating to the Investment Menu may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

6. Fees and costs

An overview of the fees and costs you can expect to pay

You'll find the fees we charge in the summary below. Entry fees and exit fees cannot be charged. You can use the information in this summary to compare fees and costs between MLC MasterKey Super & Pension Fundamentals and other super products. You can find information about fees and costs for each investment option, and more information about each fee and cost in the Fee Brochure and in the 'Additional explanation of fees and costs'.

These fees and costs may be deducted from your account balance, your investment returns, or from the assets of the MLC Super Fund as a whole. All fees are shown inclusive of stamp duty and GST and net of Reduced Input Tax Credits (where applicable). You can view the actual fees deducted from your account by logging in to mlc.com.au or on your annual statement.

Did you know?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

To find out more

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) Moneysmart website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation calculator to help you check out different fee options.

7. How super is taxed

An overview of tax in super

Tax laws change from time to time, so we recommend you seek advice from a financial adviser or registered tax agent. We're not able to provide financial or tax advice. You can also visit ato.gov.au for more information on how super is taxed.

Tax on contributions

Contributions to your super are taxed differently depending on the type you make. This generally depends on whether a tax deduction has been claimed (eg employer contributions or before tax contributions) or from after-tax money (eg your take-home pay or existing personal savings).

Before-tax contributions

Known as concessional contributions, they include employer and salary sacrifice contributions and any personal contributions that you claim as a tax deduction. These contributions are usually taxed at a rate of 15%. This tax is charged within the Fund and is deducted from your account and paid to the ATO when required or when you leave the Fund.

Additional tax applies for high income earners. Broadly, if your income and concessional contributions exceed $250,000 in an income year, an additional 15% will be applied to contributions which take you above the $250,000 threshold. This additional tax is levied on you personally by the ATO, but you can elect to have the tax paid from your super account.

Any extra contributions paid by your employer such as fees and premiums are treated as concessional contributions and count towards your concessional contribution cap.

After-tax contributions

Known as non-concessional contributions, they include spouse contributions and contributions made by you where no personal income tax deduction has been claimed. Non-concessional contributions are not subject to tax in the Fund.

Contribution caps

Contributions made to your account—both before-tax and after-tax—will count towards your contribution caps.

If your contributions in a year exceed the relevant contribution caps, you may be liable for additional tax on the excess contributions.

In addition to the contribution caps, the amount you have in your 'total superannuation balance' (which includes all your super and pension balances) may limit your ability to make after-tax contributions, claim the government co-contribution, receive a spouse contribution, and access 'catch up' concessional contributions.

Please see ato.gov.au for more information on contributions caps.

Tax on investment earnings

There are different tax treatments on investment earnings for super, transition-to-retirement pensions, and retirement pensions. Tax paid or payable on investment earnings is paid by the Fund and is reflected in the daily unit price for each investment option.

Super

Taxed at a rate of up to 15%.

Transition-to-retirement pension

Taxed at a rate of up to 15% in the pre-retirement phase until you've met an eligible condition of release. Not taxed in the retirement phase.

Retirement pension

Not taxed.

An additional tax on investment earnings may apply for those with high super balances (which includes all super savings in accumulation and income streams).

This tax is a personal tax that the ATO will assess. You have the option to pay this tax personally or elect to have an amount released from your super fund.

For information on pre-retirement and retirement phases and eligible conditions of release please refer to the Pension Guide.

Tax on payments to you

Lump sum withdrawals from super, transition-to-retirement pensions, and retirement pensions

Tax-free component[1]	Nil.
Taxable component[1]	From age 60: Tax free Under preservation age[2]: Tax of up to 22% (including Medicare Levy at 2%).

Regular and additional pension payments[3]

Tax-free component[1]	Nil.
Taxable component[1]	From age 60: Tax free Under preservation age[2]: Tax is paid at your marginal tax rate plus the Medicare Levy of 2%, with no tax offset. This only applies to retirement pensions. For disability super benefits, a tax offset of 15% is available.

1. For further information on the distinction between taxable and tax-free components of your super, go to the ato.gov.au page titled 'How tax applies to your super'.
2. Preservation age is between age 55 and 60 depending on your date of birth. If you are born on or after 1 July 1964, your preservation age is 60.
3. Not applicable for super.

A different tax treatment applies to super death benefits paid to your beneficiaries or deceased estate. For further information on this tax treatment refer to ato.gov.au

Other taxes and Government levies may apply from time to time. If applicable, we'll deduct the tax from your account before paying the lump sum or pension payment.

It's optional for you to provide your TFN to invest in MLC MasterKey Super & Pension Fundamentals - but if we don't have it, we can't accept personal after-tax contributions or the government co-contribution. We'll only be able to accept employer contributions, which may be taxed at the highest marginal tax rate (plus the Medicare Levy), rather than 15%. We may also have to deduct more tax when you start drawing down your super benefit.

8. Insurance in your super

Insurance within your super may be a tax-effective way to protect your family and your future. There are costs associated with insurance.

Insurance available in MLC MasterKey Super Fundamentals

Once you've joined MLC MasterKey Super Fundamentals and your account is set up, you can apply for insurance by completing the relevant insurance application form available at mlc.com.au

When you apply for insurance, you'll be required to provide information related to your medical history, employment, and pastimes.

Alternatively, you can select your own amount and type of cover.

You can also apply to transfer your insurance with another provider or consolidate it with insurance you have with us, subject to meeting certain eligibility criteria.

You can cancel, change or reduce your cover by calling us on 132 652. You should speak with your financial adviser to discuss the right amount of cover for your personal circumstances.

Keeping your details up to date

The information we hold about you determines your insurance. If your occupation, nature of your employment, salary, or any other personal details change it could impact your insurance and the premiums you pay because we may use your occupational ratings classification to determine the cost of your insurance cover. If your circumstances change, please contact us.

Make sure you're eligible

To be eligible for insurance, you must:

- be an Australian Resident
- be within the insurable ages (refer to the Insurance Guide)
- not be in an occupation that the Insurer classifies as 'Not insurable' in the Occupational ratings guide for insurance

The latest Occupational ratings guide for insurance is available at mlc.com.au/occupation

If you need to make a claim go to mlc.com.au/making-a-claim

Insurance fees

Premiums are charged by the insurer and are calculated based on the type and amount of your insurance cover and your age and gender. Your premiums may also be affected by your occupation, medical history, and lifestyle and leisure activities.

Once you have insurance cover, these premiums will be deducted from your Super account on a monthly basis, unless you cancel your insurance or we are required by law to cancel your insurance. If there is money in your account but it is not sufficient to pay your insurance premiums, you will need to pay the outstanding premiums within a further 30 days or your cover will be cancelled.

The latest MLC Lifestage sum insured amounts and MLC MasterKey Super Fundamentals premium rates are available at mlc.com.au/mkspf/insurancerates

When a benefit won't be paid

If you've been paid (or were entitled to be paid) a TPD or Terminal Illness benefit for a condition, before your insurance cover started, you won't be covered for Death, TPD, or Terminal Illness caused by the same condition.

Your Death (including Terminal Illness) or TPD insurance benefit won't be paid if within 13 months of starting your insurance, you die due to suicide (excluding any assisted dying programs), or are disabled as a result of an intentional self-inflicted injury.

Income Protection insurance benefits won't be paid if you become disabled due to an intentional self-inflicted injury. Other exclusions may also apply.

See the Insurance Guide for details of all the exclusions.

Additional explanation of fees and costs

Administration fees and costs

Administration fees and costs are made up of administration fees charged to your account and other administration fees and costs paid from Fund reserves. They relate to the administration and operation of the fund and include the Trustee's costs and expenses, audit fees and other regulatory costs. The administration fees and costs that apply to all investment options are shown in the Fees and Costs Summary in the PDS.

Administration fees

Administration fees are ongoing fees directly charged to your account.

Administration fees have three components.

1. A fixed fee
   This fee is calculated at $1.15 per week ($60 pa) and deducted monthly from your account balance.
2. A percentage administration fee
   This fee is deducted monthly and is calculated using your average Super account balance and average Pension account balance for the previous month. The percentage Administration fee charged to each account you have (excluding the fixed fee and Trustee Levy) is capped at $1,000 pa for Super accounts and $800 pa for Pension accounts.
3. The Trustee Levy
   This fee is charged monthly as a percentage of your total account balance. The Trustee Levy covers some of the costs related to the running of the MLC Super Fund. It is paid into the MLC Super Fund general reserve.

You can view the actual administration fees deducted from your account by logging in to mlc.com.au or on your annual statement.

Other administration fees and costs

The other administration fees and costs shown in the Fees and Costs Summary in the PDS are made up of:

- estimated administration fees which are expected to be met from the MLC Super Fund general reserve; and
- administration costs which were met from the MLC Super Fund general reserve during the financial year to 30 June 2026 and were not covered by the Trustee Levy paid into the reserve in that year.

These fees and costs are not charged to your account. However, they reduce the level of the reserve remaining available to the trustee to use for the benefit of members generally.

Investment fees and costs

Investment fees and costs relate to the investment of assets in each investment option. They are not charged to your account, but are reflected in each investment option's daily unit price.

Investment fees and costs ranges for all investment options are shown in the Fees and Costs Summary in the PDS. Performance fees, other investment fees and costs, gross and net transaction costs, and the buy-sell spreads for each investment option are set out in the Fees and costs for your investment options table on page 7.

Performance fees

Performance fees are fees paid to investment managers when their performance exceeds a specified level. Different performance fees may apply to different investment managers and performance fees vary depending on each investment manager's performance.

For multi-manager portfolios, individual investment managers may be entitled to a performance fee based on their performance in relation to their portion of an investment option, and the overall performance of the investment option may differ from the performance of that portion. This means that amounts may be payable to an investment manager even if the investment option in aggregate underperforms.

Performance fees shown are calculated as an average over the previous 5 financial years (or lesser number of financial years, if performance fees were not charged or the investment option or underlying investment was not in place, for the previous 5 financial years).

Performance fee calculations are based on historical performance and may involve estimates where information was unavailable at the date that the PDS was issued. Performance fees are an additional cost to you and may change without prior notice to you. They are, generally, deducted from the assets of the investment option and reflected in the daily unit price and any reporting on the investment performance of the investment option. Any increase in a performance fee will increase that investment option's investment fees and costs. Past performance fees aren't a reliable indicator of future performance fees.

Other investment fees and costs

These fees and costs include investment fees charged by us, which cover fees paid to investment managers and expenses such as custody and registry costs. They also include investment costs of underlying investment managers and management costs associated with derivatives. Investment costs are calculated on the basis of actual costs incurred for the financial year to 30 June 2026. Investment fees charged by us are calculated on a prospective basis.

Other investment costs disclosed in the PDS are based on actual costs incurred for the financial year to 30 June 2026 and involve estimates where information was unavailable at the date that the PDS was issued.

Some investment managers provide a rebate on their management fee, which is passed back to you and reflected in the unit price of the applicable investment option.

Past investment fees and costs shown aren't a reliable indicator of future investment fees and costs. Future Investment fees and costs may vary from time to time for a variety of reasons, for example when changes are made to the asset allocation of the investment option.

Transaction costs

When assets in an investment option are bought or sold, transaction costs are incurred at the time investments are purchased or sold. These are known as gross transaction costs and include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Brokerage costs – the amount paid to a broker when buying and selling underlying securities, e.g. shares and derivatives. These costs are incurred when the underlying fund managers trade investments as part of the ongoing management of the investment.
- Settlement costs (including custody fees) – includes fees paid to custodians or agents to manage transaction settlements.
- Stamp duty – a tax imposed by state and territory governments on transfers of certain assets or property.
- Buy-Sell spreads – are incurred when transacting in certain underlying investment products.

Some or all of the gross transaction costs may be recovered by a buy-sell spread charged to members. Buy-sell spreads are fees charged to transacting members to recover transaction costs incurred in relation to the sale and purchase of the Fund assets. They are charged whenever there's a transaction on a member account, such as a contribution, withdrawal, rollover or investment switch.

The transaction costs shown in the Fees and Costs Summary in the PDS are shown net of any amount recovered by buy-sell spreads. These transaction costs are deducted from the assets of the investment option and are an additional cost to you where they have not already been recovered by the buy-sell spreads. No part of the transaction costs (including buy-sell spreads) are retained by us or any investment managers.

The transaction costs (other than stamp duty) disclosed in the PDS are based on actual costs incurred for the financial year to 30 June 2026.

The stamp duty component of transaction costs disclosed in the PDS has been calculated as one-seventh of the stamp duty for the previous financial year. Transaction costs (including stamp duty) may involve estimates where information was unavailable at the date that the PDS was issued.

Transaction costs are ongoing costs and are reflected in the daily unit price and any reporting on the performance of the investment option. Importantly past transaction costs are not a reliable indicator of future transactions costs. Transaction costs may change without prior notice to you.

Buy-sell spreads

The buy-sell spreads shown are as at 1 October 2026. The buy-sell spreads may change daily and in certain circumstances, increase or decrease significantly. The current buy-sell spreads of an investment option are available at mlc.com.au/buysellspreads

Insurance fees

These will apply if you have insurance as described in the relevant Insurance Guide. For further information on insurance see the 'Insurance in Your Super' section of the PDS.

Investment Protection Fees

If you select MLC MasterKey Investment Protection, you'll incur additional fees associated with the protection option you choose. These fees are set out in the Investment Protection Guide.

Intra-fund Advice Costs

We make available to our members limited non-ongoing personal advice about their interest in the Fund. This may include advice to help members make investment decisions about their interest in the Fund. This advice is sometimes referred to as intra-fund advice. The costs of providing intra-fund advice are collectively charged to all members and form part of the administration fees and costs shown in the Fees and Costs Summary in the PDS. These costs are different from adviser service fees, which are agreed between the member and the adviser and are charged directly to members. For more information on intra-fund advice refer to the Simple super advice services described here mlc.com.au/advice

Taxes and tax benefit

A tax benefit may apply to fees charged to your super account. All fees in the Fees and Costs Summary in the PDS are before the tax benefit. We charge the fees shown and then pass the tax benefit back to your super account as a credit, which effectively reduces the fees shown by up to 15% pa. A tax benefit in relation to fees is not available for retirement pensions.

The tax benefit will generally be capped at the amount of contributions tax deducted from concessional contributions made to your account for the financial year and will not be available for transition to retirement pensions and retirement pensions. Tax benefits applicable to Adviser Service Fees will not be subject to this cap.

If you give us a valid notice of intent to claim a deduction for personal contributions, the contributions tax deducted from your personal contributions will be included in the cap on the tax benefit for the financial year in which you give the notice.

For more information on how super is taxed, see 'How super is taxed' section of the PDS. There is no tax benefit applicable to fees paid for Investment Protection.

Operational Risk Financial Requirement (ORFR)

The Government requires superannuation fund trustees to hold adequate financial resources to cover any losses that members incur due to operational errors. The ORFR reserve has been established by corporate capital contributed by the Trustee and its former ultimate shareholder. If the ORFR reserve falls below our targets, we propose to fund the shortfall through corporate capital, rather than seeking contributions from members. This means that we don't currently require members to contribute to the ORFR reserve, but members will be notified if this changes in the future. As the ORFR reserve is held by the Trustee, it isn't reported in the financial statements of the Fund.

Fees paid to related companies

We may use the services of related companies where it makes good business sense to do so and will benefit our customers. Amounts paid for these services are always negotiated on an arm's-length basis and are included in all the fees detailed in the PDS and the documents incorporated into the PDS. Appointments of these companies are made in accordance with the requirements of our Conflicts Management Policy.

Other fees we may charge

Fees may be charged if you request a service not currently offered. We'll agree any additional fee with you before providing the service.

We may charge members, or the Fund generally, with actual or estimated costs of running the Fund. These may include costs resulting from Government legislation or fees that are charged by third parties. If the actual costs are less than estimated costs we have deducted from your account, the difference may be retained in the Fund and used for the general benefit of members.

Cost of product for your investment options

Cost of product for 1 year

The cost of product gives a summary calculation about how ongoing annual fees and costs can affect your superannuation investment over a 1-year period for all superannuation products and investment options. It is calculated in the manner shown in the Example of annual fees and costs.

The cost of product information assumes a balance of $50,000 at the beginning of the year. (Additional fees such as a buy-sell spread may apply: refer to the Fees and costs summary for the relevant superannuation product or investment option.) You should use this figure to help compare superannuation products and investment options.

Investing with us

A range of investment options

We provide a range of investment options, and you can choose any combination of these to put your investment plan into action.

We offer multi-asset investment options that invest across multiple asset classes, and a range of options that invest in a single asset class, and investment options managed by external managers.

We've appointed MLC Asset Management to advise on and manage our MLC investment options. Our investment experts, at MLC Asset Management, have extensive knowledge and experience in designing and managing portfolios using a multi-manager investment approach. They also understand that index and enhanced-index management can play a valuable role as part of a diversified portfolio or as a stand-alone portfolio.

Investing in MLC investment options

The MLC investment options have different investment objectives because we know everyone has different requirements about how their money should be managed.

They make sophisticated investing straightforward.

MLC Asset Management structures and manages these investment options to capture new opportunities and manage new risks as their assessment of world markets change.

MLC Asset Management uses specialist investment managers. They research hundreds of investment managers from around the world and select the managers they believe are the best for the investment options. These investment managers may be specialist in-house managers, external managers or a combination of both.

Selecting investment options

The Investment Menu (menu) is regularly reviewed by experienced investment professionals.

A number of factors are taken into consideration when choosing the investment options. These may include the investment objective, fees, external research ratings and performance, as well as our ability to efficiently administer the investment option. The selection of investment options issued by companies either wholly or partially owned by the Insignia Financial Group is done on an arm's-length basis in line with our Conflicts Management Policy.

Investment switching

You can change your investment options any time. We do not charge a fee for you to do this. However, buy-sell spreads may apply.

Delayed and suspended transactions

We may delay or suspend transactions, for example where an investment manager delays or suspends unit pricing, or when there are adverse market conditions.

We may process withdrawal and switch requests in instalments over a period of time and may also suspend processing of withdrawal and switch requests we have received. In certain circumstances we may refuse a request. Where requests are delayed, suspended or being paid in instalments, the unit prices used for transactions will be those available on the day the transaction takes effect, rather than the day of the request. In the event that the investment option becomes suspended (e.g. due to illiquidity), you will be unable to make additional contributions, withdrawals or switches into or out of that suspended investment option. As part of the suspension:

- Any contributions or rollovers that would otherwise be invested in the suspended investment option in accordance with your investment strategy will instead be invested in an alternative option, e.g. MLC Cash, until you provide us with alternative instructions;
- Any insurance cover you hold may cease if there are insufficient monies in your non-suspended investment options to cover the cost of the insurance; and
- You may only withdraw your funds in accordance with any withdrawal offer that we make.

We are not responsible for losses that delayed or suspended transactions may cause.

Monitoring of frequent switching

This product is not appropriate for members who wish to switch their investments frequently in the pursuit of short-term gains.

We monitor all investment options for abnormal transaction activity because this sort of activity can have adverse impacts for other members.

To maintain equity, we have the right to deal with members who frequently switch by:

- delaying, limiting, rejecting or applying special conditions to future switch requests
- permanently cancelling membership
- rejecting applications to open new accounts in the Fund, and/or
- rejecting contributions and rollovers to existing accounts

The Fund Profile Tool

This easy to use, interactive tool will give you insight into how your money is managed including where your money is invested, how your investments are performing and the investment fees and costs charged.

For information on the investment options go to mlc.com.au/fundprofiletool

Things to consider before you invest

Before you invest, there are some things you need to consider.

How much risk you're prepared to accept is determined by various factors, including:

- your investment goals
- the savings you'll need to reach these goals
- your age and how many years you have to invest
- where your other assets are invested
- the return you may expect from your investments, and
- how comfortable you are with investment risk.

Investment risk

All investments come with some risk. Some investment options will have more risk than others, as it depends on an option's investment strategy and assets.

The value of an investment with a higher level of risk will tend to rise and fall more often and by greater amounts than investments with lower levels of risk, ie it's more volatile.

While it may seem confronting, investment risk is a normal part of investing. Without it you may not get the returns you need to reach your investment goals. This is known as the risk/return trade-off.

Many factors influence an investment's value. These include, but aren't limited to:

- market sentiment
- changes in inflation
- growth and contraction in Australian and overseas economies
- changes in interest rates
- defaults on loans
- company specific issues
- liquidity (the ability to buy or sell investments when you want to)
- changes in the value of the Australian dollar
- investments and withdrawals by other investors
- changes in Australian and overseas laws, and
- a counterparty not meeting its obligations eg when buying securities, the seller may not deliver on the contract by failing to provide the securities.

Long-term returns

The longer you invest, the greater the likelihood of achieving returns as described in the investment option's objective. This is because investment markets can frequently fluctuate significantly over shorter periods of time. Your return will be driven by the many unpredictable factors influencing investments and markets at the time. When investing, it's important to be prepared for a range of different return outcomes.

Volatility

Volatility is the degree to which the value of an investment rises and falls. It can feel unsettling and may occur regularly, however market ups and downs are a normal part of investing.

It can be tempting to change your investments when markets fall, but investments that produce higher returns and growth over long periods tend to be more volatile in the short term.

By expecting some volatility, when choosing an investment, this will help you stay true to your long-term investment strategy.

When choosing your investment, it's important to understand that:

- its value and returns will vary over time
- assets with higher long-term return potential usually have higher levels of short-term risk
- returns aren't guaranteed and you may lose money
- future returns will differ from past returns, and
- your future super savings (including contributions and returns) may not be enough to provide sufficiently for your retirement.

Diversify to reduce volatility and other risks

Diversification – investing in a range of investments – is a sound way to reduce the short-term volatility of your investment returns. That's because different types of investments perform well in different times and circumstances. When some are providing good returns, others may not be.

Your investments can be diversified across different asset classes, industries, securities and countries, as well as across investment managers with different approaches.

The more you diversify, the less impact any one investment can have on your overall returns.

One of the most effective ways of reducing volatility is to diversify across a range of asset classes.

A financial adviser can help you clarify goals and assist with creating a financial plan which helps you manage risk and consider issues such as:

- how many years you have to invest
- the savings you'll need to reach your goals
- the longer term return you may expect from your investments, and
- how comfortable you are with volatility.

Things to consider before you invest

Types of assets

Asset classes are commonly grouped as defensive or growth, based on their different characteristics.

Defensive assets, such as cash and fixed interest, may help provide positive returns in a portfolio when share markets are weak. On the other hand growth assets, such as shares and property, may be included in a portfolio because of their potential to produce higher returns than cash in the long term.

Multi-asset investment options are usually invested across both defensive and growth assets because their risk and return characteristics tend to be diverse. However in some market conditions, all types of assets may move in the same direction, delivering low or negative returns at the same time.

The main differences between defensive and growth assets are:

	Defensive	Growth
How they are generally used	To stabilise returns.	To provide long-term capital growth.
Risk and return characteristics	Expected to be less volatile over the short term and produce lower long-term returns, compared to growth assets.	Expected to be more volatile over the short term and produce higher long-term returns, compared to defensive assets.

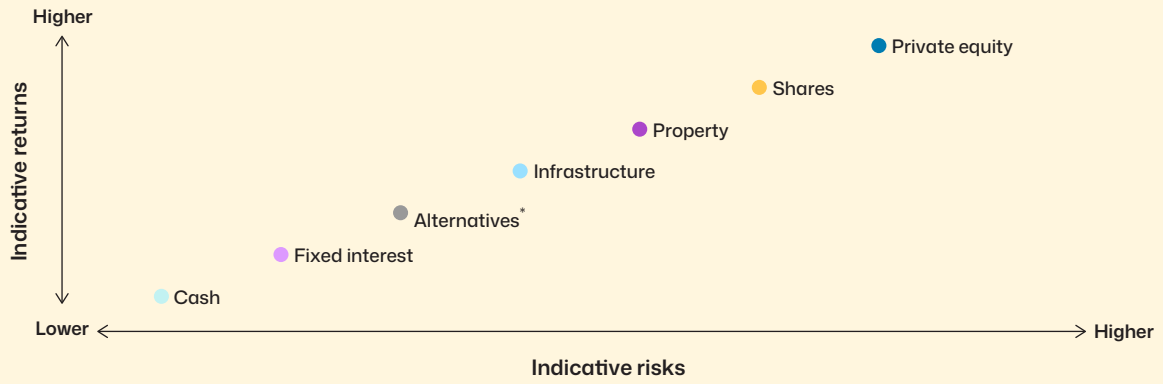

Asset classes

Asset classes are groups of similar types of investments. Each class has its risks and benefits - and goes through its own market cycle.

A market cycle can take a couple of years or many years as prices rise, peak, fall and stabilise. Through investing for the long term, at least through a whole market cycle, you can improve your chance of benefiting from a period of stronger returns and growth to offset periods of weakness.

The illustration below shows indicative returns and risks for the main asset classes over a whole market cycle. However, each market cycle is different, so unfortunately it isn't possible to accurately predict asset class returns or their risks. Depending on the conditions at the time, actual returns could be significantly different from those shown.

Indicative returns and risks over a market cycle

Source: MLC Asset Management

*Alternatives can move higher or lower on the risk/return spectrum than what is shown based on the types and combination of alternatives that are used.

Things to consider before you invest

Here are the main asset class risks and benefits.

Cash (including term deposits)

Cash is generally a low risk investment, over shorter time periods.

Things to consider:

- Cash is often included in a portfolio to meet liquidity needs or stabilise returns.
- Typically, the returns consist entirely of income, commonly referred to as interest or yield.
- Cash is usually the least volatile type of investment. It also tends to have the lowest return over a market cycle and may not keep pace with inflation over the longer term.
- The value of an investment in high quality cash securities tends not to materially change. However, in extreme market environments, interest rates or yields could become negative, resulting in a negative return.
- Many cash funds invest in fixed interest securities that have a very short term until maturity.

Fixed interest

When investing in fixed interest securities you're effectively lending money to the issuer of the security, usually a business or a government. Bonds are a common form of fixed interest security. This asset class is also referred to as fixed income, although the investments may have a fixed or variable interest rate structure.

Things to consider:

- Fixed interest securities are usually included in a portfolio for their relatively stable return characteristics, relative to growth assets such as listed shares.
- Returns typically consist of interest and changes in the market value of the fixed interest security. While income from these securities usually stabilises returns, falls in their market value may result in a loss on your investment. Market values may fall due to concerns about defaults on loans or increases in interest rates.
- Values of fixed interest securities tend to move in opposite directions to interest rates - when interest rates rise, their values tend to fall; when interest rates fall, their values tend to rise. When interest rates and interest income are low or negative, even small rises in interest rates may lead to falling market values and losses.
- Duration is a common measure of an investment's sensitivity to changes in interest rates. To illustrate, if interest rates rise sharply by 1%, and a fixed interest fund has a duration of three years, the fund would likely lose approximately 3% of its value. The longer the duration of a fixed interest investment, the more its value will be impacted by rising or falling interest rates, and the greater its interest rate risk.
- Market values of fixed interest securities may rise or fall due to changes in perceptions of the issuer being able to meet their interest and repayment obligations. This is known as default risk or credit risk. Higher quality issuers are considered investment grade and have a lower credit risk than other issuers. Fixed interest securities with higher credit risk are referred to as credit or high yield, and generally have higher potential returns (yields) to compensate investors for their higher risk.
- There are different types of fixed interest securities, each with its own level of return and risk. Fixed interest diversified refers to investment grade fixed interest securities including credit (eg corporate bonds) and fixed interest securities that are not considered credit (eg government bonds). Fixed interest credit refers to investment grade and non-investment grade fixed interest securities where the main source of return is credit or credit-related and the potential risk and return is generally higher.
- Investing in fixed interest securities outside Australia may expose your portfolio to movements in exchange rates.

Alternatives

These are a very diverse group of assets, which may for example include hedge funds, real return strategies, and gold.

Things to consider:

- Because alternatives are diverse, they may be included in an investment portfolio for their defensive or growth characteristics.
- Alternative investments are usually included in a portfolio to increase diversification and provide returns that aren't strongly linked with the performance of mainstream asset classes.
- Investment managers may include alternative investments in a portfolio because they generally expect the return and diversification benefits to outweigh the higher costs often associated with them.
- Some alternative strategies are designed to seek a specific outcome. For example, real return strategies aim to generate returns that outpace increases in the costs of living (ie inflation).
- Some alternatives, such as hedge funds, may use derivatives extensively. This can make it less apparent which underlying assets you're exposed to, compared to more traditional asset classes.
- Some alternative investments are illiquid, which makes them difficult to buy or sell.
- Because most alternative investments aren't listed on an exchange, determining their value for a fund's unit price can be difficult and may involve a considerable time lag.
- Alternatives invested outside Australia may expose your portfolio to movements in exchange rates.

Infrastructure

Infrastructure businesses own, operate, and maintain a diverse range of infrastructure assets such as toll roads, rail facilities, telecommunications networks, and airports. Access to these businesses can be gained through listed companies or securities on an exchange, unlisted infrastructure trusts, or direct ownership.

Things to consider:

- Infrastructure is usually included in a portfolio for its income, growth and/or defensive characteristics.
- As many infrastructure assets are often highly regulated monopolies, their revenue streams tend to be more regular and stable than other growth assets.
- Returns typically consist of both income and changes in the value of the assets through time.
- Returns are driven by many factors, including the economic environment in various countries.
- Due to differences in valuation frequency, returns from listed infrastructure securities may appear more volatile than those from unlisted infrastructure. Listed infrastructure securities are traded on an exchange, so their prices constantly reflect the market's changing views of their values.
- Investments in listed infrastructure securities generally provide investors with greater diversification across countries, sectors and businesses compared to unlisted infrastructure trusts and direct ownership structures.

Things to consider before you invest

- The global infrastructure market offers more diversification than the Australian infrastructure market.
- Unlisted infrastructure is less liquid which makes it more difficult for an investment manager to buy or sell.
- Investing outside Australia may expose your portfolio to movements in exchange rates.

Property

Access to property may be through:

- trusts and property-related companies listed on a securities exchange, known as listed property securities or Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs)
- unlisted property trusts, or
- direct ownership.

Investments may include retail, commercial, industrial and residential properties in Australia and around the world.

Things to consider:

- Property is usually included in a portfolio for its income, growth and/or defensive characteristics.
- Returns typically consist of income (rental or REIT income) and changes in value.
- Returns are driven by many factors, including the economic environment in various countries.
- Returns from property can be volatile. Because listed property securities are listed on an exchange, their prices constantly reflect the market's changing view of REIT values. Unlisted property assets are valued less frequently. As a result of these differences in valuation frequency, listed property securities' returns may be more volatile than unlisted property.
- Investments in listed property securities generally provide investors with greater liquidity and diversification across countries, sectors, properties, and property-related companies compared to unlisted direct property.
- The global listed property securities market is more diversified than the Australian market.
- Unlisted property is illiquid which makes it more difficult for an investment manager to buy or sell.
- Investing outside Australia may expose your portfolio to movements in exchange rates.

Australian shares

This asset class primarily consists of investments in companies listed on the Australian Securities Exchange but may also include holdings listed on other regulated exchanges. Shares, also known as equities, represent ownership in these companies.

Things to consider:

- Australian shares can be volatile and are usually included in a portfolio for their growth and income characteristics.
- The Australian share market is less diversified than the global market, as it is currently dominated by a few industries – particularly Financials and Resources.
- Returns usually consist of dividend income and changes in share prices.
- Dividends may come with tax credits (known as franking or imputation credits), which can reduce the amount of tax payable by eligible investors.
- Returns are driven by many factors, including the financial performance of the individual company, as well as positive and negative impacts from global and Australian economic conditions.
- Companies listed on the Australian share market can be grouped as small, medium and large capitalisation (cap) based on factors including the total market value of their listed shares and liquidity. Investors in small cap companies generally experience greater price volatility than shares in large cap companies because small cap companies trade less frequently and in lower volumes. They may also underperform large cap companies for many years.

Global shares

Global shares consist of investments in companies listed on international securities exchanges.

Things to consider:

- Global shares can be volatile but are usually included in a portfolio for their growth potential.
- The number of potential investments is far greater, compared to the Australian share market.
- Returns usually consist of dividend income and changes in share prices.
- Returns are driven by many factors, including the economic environment in various countries.
- When you invest globally, you're less exposed to the risks associated with investing in just one economy.
- Investing outside Australia means you're exposed to movements in exchange rates.

Private equity

Private equity is an investment in companies that are not listed on a stock exchange. Private equity invests in companies that are at different stages of the business life cycle, from start-up to mature businesses. Investments are commonly through private equity fund managers.

Things to consider:

- Private equity is usually included in a portfolio for its growth characteristics.
- Returns are driven by many factors, including the economic environment in different countries.
- Private equity can be volatile.
- Private equity may be included in a portfolio to increase diversification and to provide the potential for higher long-term returns than listed share markets.
- Private equity is illiquid which makes it difficult to buy or sell.
- Because private equity isn't listed on an exchange, determining its value for a fund's unit price can be difficult and may involve a considerable time lag.

Things to consider before you invest

Investment approaches

Investment managers have different approaches to selecting investments - which invariably leads to different investment returns. No single investment style or strategy will outperform in all market conditions.

There are generally two broad approaches: index and active management.

Index management

Index (or passive) managers select investments designed to closely track the performance of a market index. Enhanced-index (or enhanced-passive) managers choose investments which they expect will deliver a modest return above a market index. These managers generally take small positions away from their market index which are expected to lead to outperformance over the long term. Index and enhanced-index managers tend to have lower costs because they don't require extensive resources to select investments.

Active management

Active managers, based on their research, select investments which they believe will:

- outperform their market benchmark over the long term, and/or
- provide better risk-adjusted returns.

Active managers tend to have higher costs than index and enhanced-index managers because they require more extensive resources to research and select investments.

Things to consider before you invest

Our approach to responsible investment

We believe that responsible investment can improve investment outcomes for our members.

By considering Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) factors in investment decisions, where possible, we believe that we can improve potential investment returns.

As more and more of our members are looking to align their investments with their personal beliefs, we also offer the MLC Socially Responsible Growth investment option to focus on these important factors. We provide more detail on this option on page 25. No other investment options are promoted as ESG, ethical, sustainable or socially responsible investments.

You can read our 'Responsible Investment' policy at mlc.com.au/responsible-investment-policy

What is responsible investment?

Responsible investment is the practice of considering ESG factors in the research, analysis, selection and management of investments and the implementation of good stewardship practices.

There are many ESG factors that may impact investments and some examples include:

Environmental (E)	Social (S)	Governance (G)
• Climate change initiatives like reduction in greenhouse gas emissions • Waste management • Energy efficiency • Water supply • Pollution • Biodiversity	• Human capital management • Labour standards • Modern slavery • Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DE&I) • Workplace health and safety • Integration with local community and earning a social licence to operate Indigenous rights • Employee engagement	• Rights, responsibilities and expectations across all stakeholders • Board structure, diversity and independence • Executive remuneration (short- and long-term incentives) • Bribery and corruption • Anti-competitive behaviour • Political lobbying and donations • Shareholder rights • Tax strategy

Responsible investment in our investment options

We've appointed MLC Asset Management to manage our MLC investment options. MLC Asset Management use the following responsible investment approaches, where possible, for our MLC investment options to improve investment outcomes for our members:

- Identify and consider relevant ESG factors in the investment decision making process (known as ESG integration). This allows them to recognise and act upon opportunities and risks related to ESG factors.
- Be active owners in the companies your money is invested in by using ownership rights, such as proxy voting and engaging with these companies on a range of commercial, strategic and ESG factors (known as active ownership or active stewardship). This provides an opportunity to enhance and protect the long-term value of investments.

MLC Asset Management research and analyse the investment managers they select prior to their appointment, including how they consider ESG factors, where applicable. MLC Asset Management monitors and collects regular reporting on each investment manager's approach to responsible investment, including their proxy voting decisions and significant company engagements.

For MLC investment options, MLC Asset Management also excludes certain sectors and companies because they're associated with certain controversial business activities. Companies are excluded by using what's known as negative screening. See the 'What's excluded' section below.

Additional exclusions also apply to the MLC Socially Responsible Growth investment option (see page 25 for details of those exclusions).

How the responsible investment approaches described above are applied will vary based on the way the investment option is managed and the asset classes it invests in, and in some cases they aren't applied.

For example, it is not always possible to apply our approach to responsible investment to externally managed investment options, and in those cases, the external manager's approach to responsible investment is one of many factors we may consider when selecting them. You can find out if externally managed investment options consider and/or incorporate responsible investment approaches for their investment options in their PDSs, available at mlc.com.au/investment-options

What's excluded

For MLC investment options, we won't invest directly in listed tobacco manufacturing companies. There may be times when there's a small level of unintended or indirect exposure to tobacco manufacturing companies due to the use of index options, futures, or exchange traded funds, where our ability to exclude such investments may be limited.

A tobacco manufacturing company is a company that produces cigarettes and tobacco-related products. MLC Asset Management excludes these companies by applying a negative screen on tobacco manufacturing. MLC investment options may have exposure to other activities related to tobacco manufacturing, such as in raw materials, production inputs, distribution, retail sales and the financing of any of these activities.

MLC Asset Management seeks to identify any companies or securities that have exposure to tobacco manufacturing, including if a company's revenue mix has changed, and will exclude them as required. They'll also seek to identify indirect ownership of companies that would typically be excluded. This information is not always available but where information of such ownership is reasonably available, MLC Asset Management will consider whether it's appropriate to hold the investments or not.

Things to consider before you invest

Investment techniques

Our investment experts and the investment managers may use different investment techniques that can change the value of an investment.

Some of the main investment techniques are explained below.

Derivatives

Derivatives may be used in any of the investment options.

A derivative is a financial contract where value is derived from another source such as an asset, index or interest rate (underlying asset). Types of derivatives include futures, swaps, options and warrants. They are a common tool used to manage risk (hedging), efficiently manage a portfolio or generate returns.

Some derivatives allow investment managers to earn large returns from small movements in the underlying asset's price. However, they can lose large amounts if the price movement in the underlying asset is unfavourable.

Risks associated with derivatives include the risk that the value of a derivative may not move in line with the underlying asset, that the counterparty to a derivative contract may not meet payment obligations and that, in times of market stress, derivatives may be difficult or costly to trade or unwind.

Our Derivatives Policy permits the use of derivatives in MLC investment options where consistent with an investment option's objective, risk profile, disclosure and governing documents, legislative and regulatory requirements. They may be used for:

- hedging
- efficient portfolio management, and
- investment return generation.

Further information on our Derivatives Policy is available at mlc.com.au/derivativesforsuper

How the external investment managers invest in derivatives is included in their PDS, available at mlc.com.au/investment-options

Currency management

If an investment manager invests in assets in other countries, its returns in Australian dollars will be affected by movements in exchange rates (as well as changes in the value of the assets).

Our investment experts and investment managers may choose to protect Australian investors against movements in foreign currency. This is known as currency hedging. Alternatively, they may choose to keep the assets exposed to foreign currency movements, or 'unhedged'.

Returns from exposure to foreign currency can increase diversification in a portfolio.

Gearing

If gearing could cause a meaningful change in an investment option's value, we've made a note of it in the investment option's profile.

Gearing can be achieved by using loans (borrowing to invest), or through investing in certain derivatives, such as futures.

Gearing magnifies exposure to potential gains and losses of an investment. As a result, you can expect larger fluctuations, or volatility, (both up and down) in the value of your investment compared to the same investment which is not geared.

Investment managers can take different approaches to gearing. Some change the gearing level to suit different market conditions. Others maintain a target level of gearing.

It's important to understand the potential risks of gearing, as well as its potential benefits. When asset values are rising by more than the costs of gearing, the returns will be higher than if the investment wasn't geared. When asset values are falling, gearing multiplies the capital loss.

If the fall is dramatic there can be even more implications for geared investments. For example, where the lender requires the gearing level to be maintained below a predetermined limit, if asset values fall dramatically, the gearing level may rise above the limit, forcing assets to be sold when values may be continuing to fall.

In turn, this could lead to more assets having to be sold and more losses realised. Withdrawals (and applications) may be suspended in such circumstances, preventing you from accessing your investments at a time when values are continuing to fall.

Although this is an extreme example, significant market falls have occurred in the past. Recovering from such falls can take many years and the geared investment's unit price may not return to its previous high.

Other circumstances (such as the lender requiring the loan to be repaid for other reasons) may also prevent a geared investment from being managed as planned, leading to losses.

You need to be prepared for all types of environments and understand their impact on your geared investment.

Short selling

If short selling could cause a meaningful change in an investment option's value, we've made a note of it in the investment option's profile.

Short selling is used by an investment manager when they have a view that an asset's price will fall. The manager borrows the asset from a lender, usually a broker, and sells it with the intention of buying it back at a lower price. If all goes to plan, a profit is made. The key risk of short selling is that, if the price of the asset increases, the loss could be significant.

There is also the risk that the lender of the security (in the case of individual shares) may request its return which may result in the manager having to liquidate at a loss and not at a time of the manager's choosing.

Understanding your investment options

The information below explains terms used in the profiles for each investment option in the Investment Menu.

Terms	Explanation
Investment objective	Describes what the investment option aims to achieve over a certain timeframe. Most investment options aim to produce returns that are comparable to a benchmark (refer Benchmark section below). The investment objective outlines whether returns used to judge an investment option's success include or exclude certain fees and tax. Investment objectives may consider fees and tax in the following ways: • After investment fees and tax ('after fees and tax') means that a number of items are deducted when calculating the performance against an investment objective. These may include investment fees and costs, transaction costs and tax on investment earnings. Normally, other costs such as administration fees and costs, and other taxes aren't deducted. • Before investment fees and tax ('before fees and tax') means that investment fees or tax on investment earnings aren't deducted when calculating the performance against an investment objective. However, some of the more variable costs are deducted, such as performance fees, investment costs and transaction costs. • After investment fees and before tax ('after fees and before tax') means that investment fees and costs and transaction costs are deducted when calculating the performance against an investment objective. Administration fees and costs, and taxes, aren't deducted. More information on fees and tax, and how they're deducted, is available from sections 6 and 7 of the PDS.
Benchmark	Benchmarks are usually market indices that are publicly available. Shares are often benchmarked against a share market index and fixed income against a fixed income market index. Other benchmarks can be based on particular industries (eg resources), company size (eg small caps) or the wider market (eg S&P/ASX 300 or the MSCI All Country World Ex-Australia Index with Special Tax (unhedged in AUD). Benchmarks for multi-asset investment options may be: • made up of a combination of market indices weighted according to the asset allocation (commonly known as composite benchmarks), or • a single measure, such as inflation. A common index of inflation, which is the rise in the cost of living, is the Consumer Price Index (CPI), calculated by the Australian Bureau of Statistics. When comparing returns to a benchmark you should consider: • whether the investment option's return is calculated before or after fees and tax are deducted • the period over which the return should be measured, and • that an investment option is unlikely to achieve its objective in all market environments.
How the investment option is managed	Describes how the investment option is managed.
The investment option may be suited to you if...	Suggests why you may be interested in investing in this particular investment option. Your own personal objectives and circumstances will also affect your decision.
Minimum suggested time to invest	Investing for the minimum suggested time or longer improves your chances of achieving a positive return. For externally managed investment options the minimum suggested timeframes for each investment option is provided by the investment manager. However, investing for the minimum time doesn't guarantee a positive return outcome because every market cycle is different. Your personal circumstances should determine how long you hold an investment.
Asset allocation	Asset allocations are displayed in different ways, reflecting how the investment option is managed: • Strategic asset allocations (also known as benchmark or long-term asset allocations) provide an indication for the investment option of the proportion invested in each asset class. • Ranges indicate the minimum and maximum that may generally be allocated to an asset class.

Understanding your investment options

Terms	Explanation
	The actual asset allocation changes frequently due to market movements, investment activity (primarily buying and selling by investment managers), and investor applications or redemptions. As a result, actual asset allocations are not shown in this investment menu and may be above or below the strategic asset allocation at any point in time. In the event of extreme market movements and/or significant applications or redemptions, actual asset allocations may also fall outside the ranges. Where this occurs, asset allocations will be managed back within the ranges as soon as reasonably practicable. Recent actual asset allocations are available at mlc.com.au/fundprofiletool Strategic asset allocations and ranges may change from time-to-time. We'll notify you of any material updates.
Standard Risk Measure	We include the Standard Risk Measure (SRM) to help you compare investment risk across the investment options offered. The SRM is based on industry guidance and is the estimated number of negative annual returns over any 20 year period. Because the SRM is an estimate, the actual number of negative annual returns that an investment option may experience over a 20 year period may be different. Importantly, the SRM is not a complete measure of investment risk. It does not: • indicate the potential size of a negative annual return • recognise that a positive return could still be less than a member requires to meet their investment objectives/needs • capture the risk of the investment option not meeting its investment objective, or • account for the impact of administration fees and tax, which may increase the chance of a negative return. Members should still ensure they are comfortable with the risks and potential losses associated with their chosen investment. Information on how the SRM is calculated is available at mlc.com.au/srm

Risk band	Risk label	Estimated number of negative annual returns in any 20 year period
1	Very low	Less than 0.5
2	Low	0.5 to less than 1
3	Low to medium	1 to less than 2
4	Medium	2 to less than 3
5	Medium to high	3 to less than 4
6	High	4 to less than 6
7	Very high	6 or greater

Choosing your investment options

We offer a range of investment options so you can choose how to invest your money.

We offer two groups of investments to suit your needs. Choose one or many from these two groups. To help you make a choice we've outlined their key attributes below.

Ready-made portfolios

To make investing easy we offer a range of multi-asset investment options that are diversified across asset classes and management styles, providing different levels of investment risk and potential return. Choose from a range of Ready-made investment options available to you, to suit your risk appetite or needs.

Simple choice

Simple choice are a range of actively-managed investment options designed to deliver returns consistent with their objectives, while managing risk.

Each investment option has a different allocation of growth and defensive assets, to reduce the risk and achieve returns. These investment options are managed within defined ranges so you always know where your money is invested.

Low cost

Low cost are diversified investment options that balance active and index management. Their focus is on keeping costs low, while achieving returns similar to the market.

Socially responsible

Socially responsible investment is an investment approach which prioritises various moral or ethical issues and values over other information that may be relevant to investment outcomes. We offer the MLC Socially Responsible Growth option, which is designed to provide you with greater certainty over the exclusion of exposure to certain controversial holdings (eg tobacco and gambling). All other MLC investment options aren't promoted as socially responsible or ethical investments. Refer to 'Our approach to responsible investment' page 10 and 'MLC Socially Responsible Growth' page 25 for more information.

Build-your-own portfolio

You can also take greater control of your portfolio by selecting from a wide range of investment options. There are four broad groups of investment options available to help you build your own portfolio.

The investment options in these groups invest in a single asset class, such as Australian shares, global shares, property and fixed income or cash. Refer to 'Asset classes' section on page 5 for more information on each of the asset classes under this option.

An overview of these investment options, including their investment objectives and how they are invested, is provided on the following pages. You can find further details on each investment option at mlc.com.au/investment-options. A copy of each externally managed option's PDS is available on request, free of charge, by calling us on 132 652.

Investment objective	Aims to grow by more than inflation + 3.5% pa (after fees and tax) over 10 years.
Benchmark	Inflation is measured by the Consumer Price Index, calculated by the Australian Bureau of Statistics.
How the investment option is managed	A diversified portfolio with socially responsible investment considerations applied to the majority of the portfolio. We apply negative screening to Australian shares and global shares. In addition, the underlying investment managers selected may apply their own screening criteria to other asset classes, however we do not control these screens. The portfolio is predominantly weighted towards the more traditionally growth-focused assets that tend to provide higher levels of long-term capital growth (eg shares), with a small exposure to the more stable, defensive asset classes of cash and fixed income. Our investment experts actively adjust the asset weightings to improve return potential or reduce its risk. The investment option may be suited to you if...	• you want some of your investment to incorporate socially responsible investment considerations • you want your investment to exceed changes in the costs of living, over the long term • you want an emphasis on growth rather than stability, and • you understand returns may be higher or lower than its objective.

MLC Socially Responsible Growth

We recognise that more and more of our members want to align their investments with their personal beliefs, so we've designed the MLC Socially Responsible Growth investment option. Socially responsible investment is an investment approach that prioritises various moral or ethical issues and values over other information that may be relevant to investment outcomes.

This approach is applied to the MLC Socially Responsible Growth investment option which limits exposure to certain controversial business activities – see the 'What's excluded' section below.

Application of responsible investment

Where possible, the responsible investment approach outlined previously is applied to all asset classes in which this option is invested. Please refer to the 'Our approach to responsible investment' section on page 10.

However, as noted below, there are some asset classes in which it is either not possible to implement our responsible investment approach or to fully implement that approach because of the nature of those asset classes, the amount invested or the way investments are held in those asset classes.

What's excluded

The MLC Socially Responsible Growth investment option limits exposure to the controversial business activities listed under the asset classes below, by using negative screening.

There may be times when this investment option has a small level of unintended or indirect exposure to the business activities that we intend to exclude. This may happen due to the use of index options, futures, or exchange traded funds, where our ability to exclude such investments may be limited.

In addition, there may be some asset classes in which this investment option is invested, where there is limited scope to implement our negative screens because the way underlying assets in those asset classes are managed does not accommodate exclusions or the amount invested may not provide sufficient scale to negotiate exclusions.

Australian and global shares

Our investment managers for Australian and global shares are engaged under an Investment Management Agreement (IMA) requiring them to implement the negative screens outlined below to direct investments in Australian and global shares for this investment option.

Negative screening is implemented based on generally available company data from third-party providers, which assesses companies' revenues to determine their business activities.

The investment managers for Australian and global shares use negative screening based on the revenue earned from the following business activities, subject to the stated revenue limits:

- Alcohol production – 0% revenue limit.
- Gambling, including the manufacture of specific equipment – 0% revenue limit.
- Tobacco manufacturing – 0% revenue limit.
- Controversial weapons producers – 0% revenue limit. Examples of controversial weapons are (but not limited to): chemical weapons, biological weapons, and nuclear weapons.
- Thermal coal production – 10% revenue limit. Thermal coal production is defined as the mining of thermal coal (including lignite, bituminous, anthracite and steam coal) and its sale to external parties. Negative screening doesn't apply to revenue from metallurgical coal, coal mined for internal power generation (eg in the case of vertically integrated power producers), intra-company sales of mined thermal coal, and revenue from coal trading.

Revenue limits are determined for all companies as the most recent-year net operating revenues from all ongoing lines of business of the company. For example, a 10% revenue limit would mean that any company with more than 10% of its most recent year net operating revenue or sales coming from a particular controversial business activity would be excluded from the investment option.

Negative screening is only applied to production – no other business activities are excluded.

MLC Asset Management seeks to identify any companies or securities that no longer meet the criteria for this investment option, including if a company's revenue mix has changed, and will exclude them as required. They will also seek to identify indirect ownership of companies that would typically be excluded. Where information of such ownership is reasonably available, MLC Asset Management will consider whether it's appropriate to hold the investments or not.

*See page 10 for definition of tobacco manufacturing

Fixed Income, Cash, Alternatives, Infrastructure, Property and Private Equity

We do not apply negative screening to the following asset classes:

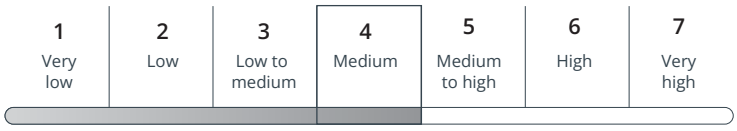

- Fixed Income
- Cash
- Alternatives
- Infrastructure
- Property
- Private Equity

Some underlying managers may apply their own independent negative screening, however, we generally don't have any control over their screens (if any).

	NAB Term Deposits
Investment objective	The interest rate on a term deposit is fixed for the term you select.
Benchmark	Not applicable
How the investment option is managed	You can select a six month, one year or two year term. As a term deposit is a fixed term investment it should only be selected if you are able to remain invested until maturity of your nominated term. You can find current interest rates on mlc.com.au How much you can invest You can invest up to 80% of your account balance in term deposits. You can't invest once you reach the age of 90 or as part of a regular contribution strategy. Term deposits are invested for a fixed term. Early withdrawals are only permitted in extreme circumstances and will result in reduced interest. Maintaining your account balance When you invest in term deposits, you'll also need to make sure you maintain at least 10% of each of your super and pension account balances in other investment options (not term deposits). This allows us to process your withdrawal requests and pension payments and also pay fees and other costs for your account. If you make a one-off withdrawal request which would make your account balance fall below this 10% minimum, then we may not process it. How interest is paid Interest will be paid into your nominated investment option on maturity. Interest on the two year term is paid annually on the anniversary into MLC Cash with the remaining interest paid on maturity.
The investment option may be suited to you if...	you want to achieve a fixed rate of return for a set period.

Important

When you apply for any insurance cover, you should take reasonable care not to make any misrepresentations. Failure to do so may significantly impact your ability to claim on any cover granted. For example, the Insurer may be able to cancel the cover and treat it as if it never existed, or vary the amount of the cover, premium payable, expiry date, or other terms of the cover. A misrepresentation can be a false answer, an answer that is only partially true, or an answer which does not fairly reflect the truth.

Insurance available in MLC MasterKey Super Fundamentals

Everybody has different needs and insurance is no exception.

That's why we help you create an insurance solution to suit you and your family's needs.

Once you've joined MLC MasterKey Super Fundamentals and your account is set up, you can apply for insurance.

How to apply

To apply for insurance please complete the insurance application form available at mlc.com.au/superinsurance. In this form you'll be required to provide information related to your medical history, employment, and pastimes.

Specific occupation loadings and/or medical exclusions may apply that can increase or decrease your overall premiums.

How much insurance do you need?

While nobody likes to dwell on the negatives, without enough insurance you could put you and your family's lifestyle at risk.

You or your financial adviser can go through the types of insurance on offer and assess how much you may need.

Then you can get on with enjoying life, rather than worrying about what may or may not happen.

You might also like to check out our insurance estimator at mlc.com.au/insurance-estimator which may help you determine the level of cover you may need.

Transferring or consolidating your insurance

If you have insurance with another provider, you can apply to transfer it to your account or consolidate it with insurance you have with us, subject to meeting certain eligibility criteria.

We can help you do this if you complete the Consolidate your insurance form available at mlc.com.au/insuranceforms

You can apply for one of these Death and TPD or Death-only options.

MLC Lifestage insurance

Subject to meeting the eligibility criteria, you're able to select from three levels of MLC Lifestage insurance:

- Standard cover
- Half the standard cover, or
- Double the standard cover.

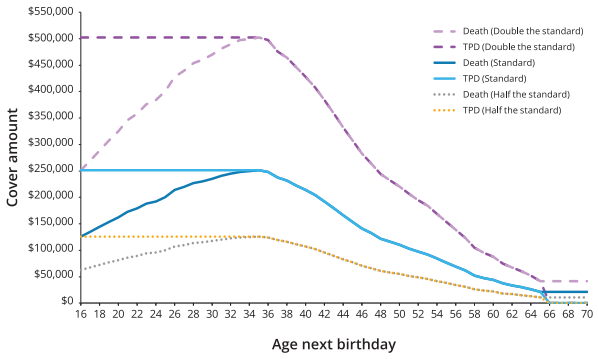

MLC Lifestage insurance provides a combination of Death and Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) insurance designed to cater to your needs through different life stages. You'll have more TPD insurance when you're younger, when you're most likely to have a high mortgage or children at home, and lower Death and TPD insurance when you're older and most likely to be financially secure. Please see graph on page 5.

Death insurance (including Terminal Illness insurance) ends at age 70 and TPD insurance ends at age 65.

We'll adjust your level of insurance each year on your birthday and each year we'll confirm your level of insurance and premiums paid in your Annual Statement.

Death, or Death and Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) insurance

What is Death insurance and how does it work?

Death insurance pays a lump sum if you die or if you're diagnosed with a Terminal Illness. To be eligible for Death insurance, you must be between ages 15 and 69. Death insurance ends at age 70.

What is TPD insurance and how does it work?

Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) insurance pays a lump sum if you're unable to ever work again due to Illness or injury. To be eligible for TPD insurance you must be between ages 15 and 64. TPD insurance ends at 65.

What types of cover can I choose?

You can choose to apply for the following types of cover:

MLC Lifestage Insurance

If you choose MLC Lifestage insurance, your Death and TPD insurance will change as you age, as outlined on page 5.

Nominated amount of cover

If you choose your own cover amounts:

- TPD insurance must be combined with Death insurance—TPD cover on its own is not available.
- Your TPD insured amount cannot exceed your Death insured amount.
- TPD insurance will reduce from age 61 by equal amounts each year until age 65 when your TPD insurance ends.

What happens to my Death insurance if I make a TPD claim?

If we pay a TPD Benefit to you, your Death insurance will reduce by the amount of the payment and your ongoing premiums will reduce accordingly.

When won't a benefit be paid?

If, before the most recent date you became insured under the Insurance Policy, you've been paid, or were entitled to be paid, a TPD or Terminal Illness benefit (whether by the Insurer or any other insurer or superannuation fund) for a Pre-Existing Condition, then no benefit will be payable for Death, TPD or Terminal Illness, caused directly or indirectly by the same Pre-Existing Condition.

A benefit won't be paid if within 13 months of starting or increasing your insurance:

- your death is due to suicide (this exclusion does not apply to Assisted Dying Programs), or
- your Terminal Illness or TPD is due to an intentional self-inflicted injury.

Income Protection insurance

The intention of Income Protection insurance cover is to provide you with ongoing income and financial support, should you become unable to work due to an Illness or Injury. It can help to give peace of mind knowing you have income to help pay your expenses while you focus on your health and recovery.

How does it work?

This insurance provides a monthly benefit of up to 75% of your Pre-Disability Monthly Income, paid after a waiting period.

To be eligible for a benefit you must be:

- Totally Disabled for the first 14 consecutive days of the waiting period, and
- Totally Disabled or Partially Disabled for the remainder of the waiting period.

You may also have a Superannuation Contribution Benefit, which will provide an additional benefit as a percentage of your Pre-Disability Monthly Income while you're Totally Disabled and unable to work or Partially Disabled and working with a reduced income. This is paid into your Super account, or another complying super fund of your choice, to cover your employer superannuation contributions.

Maximum monthly benefit payable

The amount of monthly benefit payable will be the lesser of:

- your agreed benefit, and
- your maximum monthly benefit payable at the Date of Claim

The maximum monthly benefit payable to you is:

- 75% of the first $40,000, and
- 50% of the next $40,000

of your Pre-Disability Monthly Income.

If you have a Superannuation Contribution Benefit, an additional amount may be paid into your Super account, up to a maximum of 15% of your Pre-Disability Monthly Income.

This is subject to an overall total maximum benefit of $50,000 per month for the first two years of your benefit period, including any Superannuation Contribution Benefit.

If your benefit payment continues beyond two years, the overall total maximum benefit payable is $30,000 per month, for the remaining benefit period including any Superannuation Contribution Benefit.

Making sure you're eligible

To be eligible for Income Protection insurance you must be Employed in:

- Permanent Employment, or
- Fixed-term Contract Employment

for 15 hours or more per week and be between ages 15 and 64.

You're not eligible for this insurance if you're:

- not employed
- Employed for less than 15 hours a week
- Employed in Casual Employment, or
- Employed in an occupation classified as Not Insurable or Special Risk

Further information is available in the Occupational ratings guide for insurance which is available at mlc.com.au/occupation

When will my benefit payment be reduced?

Your benefit may be reduced if you receive other income while you are unable to work due to Illness or injury. Your monthly benefit will be reduced so that the total of your other income and the monthly benefit does not exceed 75% of your Monthly Income.

Other income includes but is not limited to:

- any regular income received from your employer (including sick leave)
- payments made under any other similar policies, and
- any entitlement to or payments made under workers' compensation or similar legislation.

Other income does not include:

- Centrelink payments, or
- payments in respect of medical treatment, rehabilitation, permanent impairment or permanent loss of a body part, or
- common law damages for past or future economic loss.

Important information

It's important to check what other insurance policies you hold. For Income Protection cover, you can generally only claim on one policy. If you have multiple policies, you might be paying premiums for policies you don't require – or you're not eligible to claim on.

When won't benefits be paid?

Benefits won't be paid to you for disability due to:

- an intentional self-inflicted injury or attempted suicide (regardless of whether you are sane or insane),
- normal and uncomplicated pregnancy or childbirth,
- any act of war or service in any armed forces other than the Australian Defence Force Reserves not deployed overseas, or
- if you are unemployed at the Date of Claim.

Cover is available worldwide, however benefit payments are limited to one year if you're not continuously a resident in Australia or an Approved Country.

You can apply for a benefit period of: • two years • five years, or • to age 65. If you're Employed in Fixed-term Contract Employment and choose the: • two or five-year benefit period, the benefit period will expire on the earlier of your nominated benefit period or your contract end date. • to age 65 benefit period, the benefit period will expire on the later of two years or the expiry of the term of your contract. Your waiting period will be extended by the amount of days you work. If you return to work for more than the maximum days above, your waiting period will start again. These working days don't have to be consecutive. If the waiting period restarts, you must be Totally Disabled for the first 14 days of the new waiting period to be eligible for a benefit.
✓	Superannuation Contribution Benefit	You can apply for a Superannuation Contribution Benefit of up to 15% of your Monthly Income (subject to the maximum monthly benefit limit). ✓	Rehabilitation expenses benefit	If approved in advance by the Insurer, the Insurer will pay the rehabilitation expenses directly to the service providers or provide the rehabilitation services to you. The Insurer will not pay any monies (directly or indirectly) to you.

Insurance available in MLC MasterKey Super Fundamentals

Features of Income Protection insurance
✓	Partial Disability benefit	If you're Totally Disabled for a period of 14 consecutive days or more, and then return to work in a reduced capacity, earning a reduced income, you may receive a Partial Disability benefit.
✓	Recurring disability	Your waiting period may be waived if your Total Disability (or Partial Disability) recurs within six months of your return to your usual Occupation or a different Occupation because it will be considered part of your earlier claim, provided the cause of the recurrence is the same or related to the cause of the original Total Disability.
✓	Waiver of premiums	If you're on claim and in receipt of an Income Protection benefit, your Income Protection premiums will be temporarily waived.
✓	Insurance transfer or consolidation	You can apply to transfer your insurance with another provider or consolidate it with insurance you have with us. To do this, you can access the Consolidate your insurance form available at mlc.com.au/insuranceforms (conditions apply).
✓	Bereavement Benefit	If you die whilst in receipt of an Income Protection benefit and have no Death cover in MLC MasterKey Super Fundamentals, the Insurer will pay a Bereavement Benefit equal to 3 months of Total Disability benefit (or 6 months if your benefit period is to age 65), subject to the expiry of the benefit period.

About your premium

Premiums will be deducted from the investment options in your Super account balance in accordance with the fee drawdown sequence you've selected. When moving to Pension, you'll need to keep a balance in Super to pay for insurance premiums as they can't be deducted from a Pension account.

The insurance premium rates are available at mlc.com.au/mkspf/insurancerates

We calculate premiums based on the type and amount of insurance you have and your age and gender.

For Income Protection Insurance, the premium you pay will include an amount to cover the cost of stamp duty. This will be a percentage-based amount that is dependent on the State in which you reside and is subject to change.

If the Insurer asks you to provide evidence of your health, your premium can also be influenced by factors such as your:

- Occupation
- medical history, and
- lifestyle and leisure activities

Please let us know if your details are incorrect, as you could be paying a higher premium than necessary.

The latest Occupational ratings guide for insurance is available at mlc.com.au/occupation

How often do you pay your premiums?

Premiums are deducted monthly in arrears from your Super account. Each premium is based on the number of days in the month.

If you don't have enough money in your Super account to pay your insurance premium, you'll receive a notification letter from us about your overdue premiums. If premiums are not paid within 30 days of the premium due date, we'll cancel your insurance.

Tax Benefits

A tax benefit may apply to fees, including insurance premiums, charged to your super account.

All premium rates shown in this document are before any tax benefit. We charge the premiums shown and then pass any tax benefit back to your super account as a credit, which effectively reduces the premiums shown by up to 15% pa.

Any tax benefit applicable to fees, including insurance premiums, will be capped at the amount of contributions tax deducted from concessional contributions made to your account for the financial year.

Other adjustments to premiums

Your premiums may be adjusted for:

- your age
- changes to your insurance, or
- changes in your circumstances, such as changes to your Occupation.

The Insurer may also make changes to premium rates, which could increase or decrease your premiums. We'll tell you about any material increases to premium rates at least 30 days before they take effect. Notification of any non-material changes may be made available online at mlc.com.au but you may not be directly notified of these updates. You may, however, obtain a paper copy of these change communications on request.

Insurance – the details

Keep your details up to date

You need to let us know about changes to your personal details, such as a change in your Occupation or your Monthly Income, so that your premiums are kept up to date. To update your occupation or salary, please contact us on 132 652. If your Monthly Income has reduced, you'll need to review your Income Protection to make sure you're not paying higher premiums than required for the amount of cover you can claim at Date of Claim.

Not Insurable occupations

If you are Employed in an Occupation that the Insurer classifies as Not Insurable, you will not be eligible for insurance. This classification consists of jobs in occupations where the Insurer is unable to accept the risk.

If you move from an Insurable Occupation to a Not Insurable Occupation, you will retain Death and TPD Cover and in the event of a claim for TPD will be assessed under the 'Unable to do basic activities associated with work ever again' definition. These occupations are listed in the latest Occupational ratings guide for insurance which is available at mlc.com.au/occupation

Replacing your existing insurance

Before you consider cancelling any existing insurance you have with another provider, you need to make sure your insurance is right for you. Please wait for us to confirm that you're insured before you cancel any existing insurance arrangements.

You can find more information in the MLC MasterKey Super & Pension Fundamentals How to Guide including:

When your insurance will end

Your insurance will end on the earliest of the following:

- the date you're no longer an Australian Resident
- the date you're no longer eligible for insurance
- if you don't have enough money in your Super account to cover the cost of your insurance, 30 days after the premium due date
- the date of your death
- the day before you start working with the armed services of any country, except for the Australian Defence Force Reserves not deployed overseas
- the day you reach the maximum insurable age
- your Super account is closed
- you make a fraudulent claim
- you cancel your insurance
- at the end of the period for which premiums have been paid, if your Super account hasn't received a contribution or rollover for a continuous period of 16 months, and you have not provided us the Choose to Keep My Insurance Cover form
- for Income Protection insurance with either the two year or five year benefit period, the date the Insurer pays you a lump sum Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) or Terminal Illness benefit. Any existing Income Protection claim will continue to be paid if you continue to be disabled due to the same Illness or Injury but after the end of your current claim, no further claim will be paid

Reinstating your cover

If your insurance has ended because there has not been a contribution or rollover into your Super account for a continuous period of 16 months, and you had not provided us with your written election to retain your cover, you can reinstate your cover by applying in writing within 60 days of cover ceasing. Reinstatement of cover may require you to pay unpaid premiums from your Super account. Should your Super account balance be insufficient to cover any unpaid premiums, we'll provide you an opportunity to make contributions to your Super account to top up the balance if you wish.

If your insurance has ended for any other reason, you can apply for insurance cover, subject to the approval of the Insurer.

Cancelling or reducing cover

You can change, cancel or reduce your insurance at any time by contacting us. A reduction or cancellation will be effective from the date your request is received.

If your insurance is cancelled, you won't be able to claim for an Illness or Injury for an event that occurs after the cancellation date. However, you'll still be able to make a claim for events that happen before your cover was cancelled. The Insurer will assess any claim you make, and we will let you know if it's been accepted or declined.

If your insurance is cancelled and you then reapply for cover, you may need to provide information related to your medical history, employment and pastimes and be accepted by the Insurer.

MLC MasterKey Investment Protection

Protect your retirement savings with Investment Protection

With Investment Protection you can protect one investment option in your MLC MasterKey Super & Pension Fundamentals account[1]. This means your savings are protected if the market goes down and your investment still grows when the market goes up.

Your financial adviser

MLC MasterKey Investment Protection is only available to you through a financial adviser or through their authorised representative.

We believe in the value of financial advice and strongly recommend you regularly keep in touch with your financial adviser.

If you choose to no longer receive financial advice, you can still use MLC MasterKey Investment Protection and we'll continue to provide product updates and statements to you at your last known email or postal address. You can update your personal details or manage your account on mlc.com.au/login

You can choose from two types of protection:

- Protected Capital, which protects your investment (see page 5), or
- Protected Income, which gives you a minimum regular income you can rely on (see page 7).

MLC MasterKey Investment Protection means you can:

- choose how much you want to protect
- choose from a range of diversified multi-manager investments
- protect your investment capital for 10 or 20 years, or your chosen income for 10 or 20 years
- choose when your Protected Payments start (see page 7)
- protect your savings before and after you retire, and during transition to retirement
- add to your protection
- access your savings at any time (subject to normal super and pension restrictions)
- transfer your protection to your beneficiary, and
- cancel your protection at any time.

[1] In this Guide, a reference to "Super" is a reference to MLC MasterKey Super Fundamentals and a reference to "Pension" is a reference to MLC MasterKey Pension Fundamentals. Your Super and Pension are held under the same MLC account number.

Things you need to consider

Your investment timeframe

You need to make sure the term you choose is consistent with your investment timeframe if you're to get the full benefit of your protection. This means if you choose a 20-year term, you need to be willing to remain in the same investment option for 20 years.

Changing your protection

Once your protection has started, you can't change it. So before investing, make sure you've chosen the right protection and investment option to suit your needs.

Ending your protection

Your protection will end when your chosen term ends unless you decide to end it earlier.

Your protection will also end if you need to withdraw all of your Investment Balance (see page 5) before the end of your chosen term. This includes if you die before your protection term ends or you need to take your super early because of total and permanent disability, terminal illness or financial hardship.

If you end your protection early, you'll receive the Investment Balance and not the Protected Value (see page 5). If you want to reapply for protection, you'll need to wait six months before we can accept your application.

For more information on when your protection ends, please see page 17.

Taking money out

You can take money out of your account at any time during your protection term (subject to normal super and pension restrictions) but this may affect your protection (see page 12 for details). To avoid this you may choose to protect only some of your Super or Pension account.

Payments if you die

If you die, the value of your protection will only be paid if you select the Death Benefit option (see page 5) in Protected Capital or Spouse Benefit option (see page 7) in Protected Income. If you don't select either of these options, we'll pay the Investment Balance.

Changes we may need to make to your protection

We may need to change the protection features after you start your protection. For example, as a result of legislative or regulatory changes, or if certain events happen, such as material or adverse long-term changes in market or demographic conditions.

These changes may include:

- Increasing the fee you pay for protection (this won't exceed 7% pa).
- Moving your protected Investment Balance out of the option you've chosen to protect and into a different investment option of our choosing. Any future additions you wish to protect would then be made to the protected investment option we choose.
- Changing how often market gains can be 'locked in' (the lock-in will be at least every two years).
- Reducing the withdrawal limit if you choose Protected Capital.
- Stopping or restricting you from adding to your protected investment option.

We'll let you know beforehand if any of these changes need to be made.

Trustee obligation to pay and financial statements

Our liability to pay you any benefits owed under Investment Protection is limited to the amount we receive from the provider of the protection, MLC Investments Limited. To obtain a copy of MLC Investments Limited Financial Statements, please call us.

Protected Capital

You can protect your savings from negative investment performance and still take advantage of investment growth

With Protected Capital you will know what your minimum Investment Balance will be at the end of a 10 or 20 year term. Your savings are protected from negative investment performance, and growth in your investment can increase the minimum Investment Balance you receive at the end of your term.

Who can apply?

You need to:

- be 50 years or older, and
- have between $30,000 and $1.5 million to protect.

Your Investment Balance is the actual balance of your protected investment option. This may be more or less than your Protected Value at any one time.

Your Protected Value is the amount locked in each year on your protection anniversary date. Your Protected Value won't fall below this locked in amount even if your Investment Balance goes down. This is the minimum amount in your account at the end of your term.

How Protected Capital works

Initially, your Protected Value is the same as your Investment Balance. Over time, your Investment Balance will move up and down with your investment's performance, and your Protected Value will either increase or stay the same. It won't go down unless you take money out of your protected investment option. For more information go to page 12.

Each year, on your protection anniversary date, your protection will:

- remain the same if your Investment Balance goes down, or
- increase to equal the Investment Balance of your protected investment option if it's more than your Protected Value.

So, regardless of how your investment performs, you'll always know the minimum amount in your account at the end of your term.

If you end your protection early you'll receive the Investment Balance and not the Protected Value. If you die before your protection ends you'll receive the Investment Balance unless you select the Death Benefit option. If you select the Death Benefit option we'll then pay your Protected Value or Investment Balance, whichever is the greater.

When does your protection start?

Your protection term starts on the date you first invest in your protected investment option.

Optional extras

There are two options you can add to your Protected Capital:

- The Additional Investment option – this allows you to add to your protection while in Super.
- The Death Benefit option – we'll pay your Protected Value or Investment Balance, whichever is the greater, if you die before your protection term ends, so you'll know the minimum amount you'll leave to your beneficiary or estate. You need to be 65 years or younger to apply for this option.

These options must be selected when you apply for protection. An additional fee applies (see page 18). They can't be added or removed once your protection application is accepted.

MLC MasterKey Investment Protection

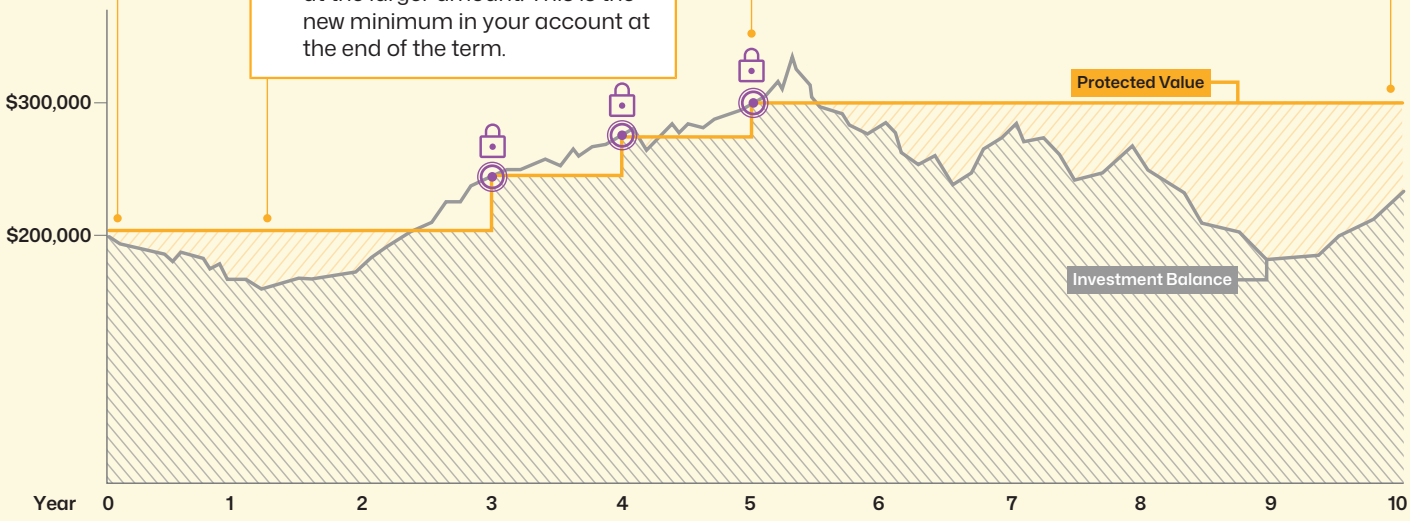

Example of how Protected Capital works

1. You have an MLC MasterKey Super Fundamentals account. You invest $200,000 in the MLC Balanced with Protected Capital for 10 years. Your initial investment amount of $200,000 is now protected and is the minimum amount in your account at the end of your 10-year term.

2. Your Investment Balance moves with the investment performance of MLC Balanced.
On each protection anniversary, if your Investment Balance increases, your Protected Value is locked in at the larger amount. This is the new minimum in your account at the end of the term.

3. Your investment option performs well and in year five your Protected Value is $300,000. Your Investment Balance starts decreasing later that year, but your Protected Value remains at $300,000.

4. At the end of your 10 year term your Investment Balance is $225,000. This is less than your Protected Value of $300,000 so you have $225,000 in your investment option and we pay $75,000 into MLC Cash.

Each year on your protection anniversary date, whenever your Investment Balance is more than your Protected Value, your Protected Value increases and is locked in.

Protected Income

You can protect the income you take out from your savings and take advantage of investment growth

With Protected Income you will know what your minimum income amount will be each year. You can protect your income for 10 or 20 years. Your income amount will not be affected by negative investment performance and can increase as a result of investment growth. You can also be left with a balance at the end of your term.

Your Investment Balance is the actual balance of your protected investment option. This may be more or less than your Protected Value at any one time. For more information see page 9.

Your Protected Value is locked in each year on your protection anniversary date. Your Protected Value won't fall below this locked in amount even if your Investment Balance goes down. Your Protected Value is used to calculate your Protected Payments. For more information see page 9.

Your Protected Payment is the income amount you can take out of your protected investment option each year without reducing your Protected Value.

Who can apply?

You need to:

- be 50 years or older, and
- have between $30,000 and $1.5 million to protect.

How Protected Income works

Your Investment Balance will still move up and down with your investment's performance, and your Protected Value and Protected Payments will increase or stay the same.

Each year on your protection anniversary date, your Protected Value will:

- remain the same, or
- increase to be the same as your Investment Balance if that balance is more than your protection.

This means, if your Protected Value increases so will your Protected Payments for the remainder of your term.

Your Protected Payment amount

Your Protected Payment amount is the amount you can take out of your protected investment option each year without affecting the Protected Value. Your Protected Payment amount is based on the term you choose. For more information please refer to page 11.

This can be taken as income payments, lump sum withdrawals or switches to other investment options and other payments such as Adviser service fees.

When does your protection start?

Your investment is protected from the date you first invest in your protected investment option as long as you invest within the first 90 days of your application being accepted. Your term starts when you start your Protected Payments. To start your Protected Payments you must reach preservation age and have started your Pension account.

Optional extras

For an additional fee, you can add the Spouse Benefit option to your Protected Income. If you select this option, your Protected Payments will go to your spouse (as your beneficiary) if you die before your protected term ends. You must select this option when you apply for protection. An additional fee applies (see page 18). The Spouse Benefit can't be added or removed once your protection starts.

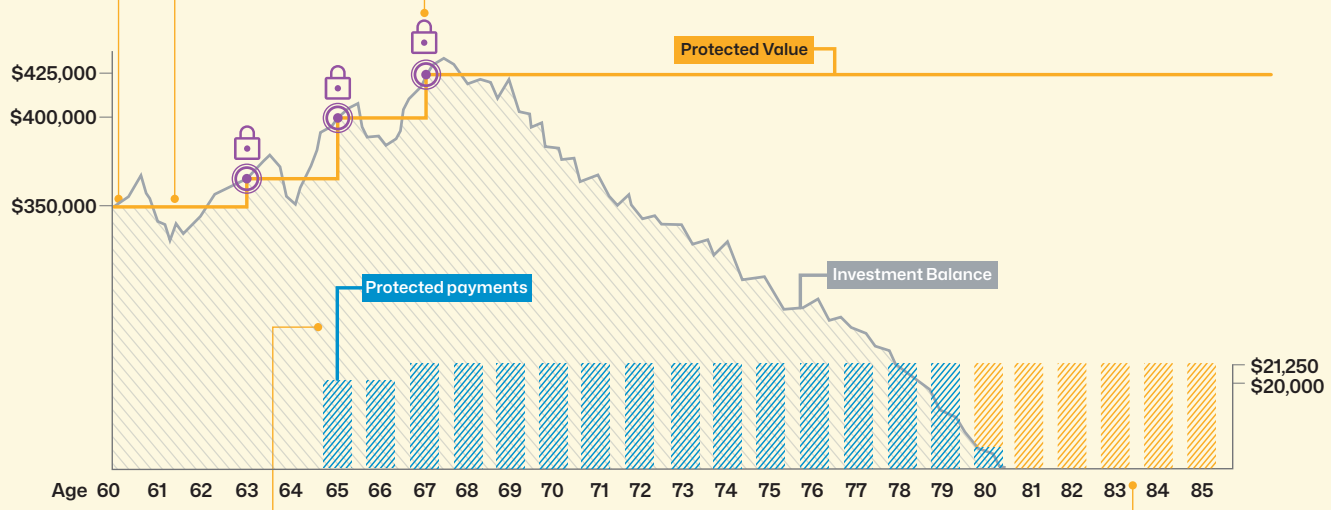

MLC MasterKey Investment Protection

Example of how Protected Income works

You have an MLC MasterKey Super Fundamentals account. and invest $350,000 in the MLC Balanced. You decide to retire in five years' time and protect your income for 20 years.
Your initial Investment Balance of $350,000 is now protected.

Your Investment Balance moves with the investment performance of the MLC Balanced. On each protection anniversary, when your Investment Balance increases, your Protected Value is locked in at the larger amount. This is the new balance used to calculate your Protected Payments.

During the first two years of your term, Protected Value Protected payments your Protected Value increases from $400,000 to $425,000. This increases your Protected Payment each year to $21,250 (5% of $425,000) for the remainder of your term. From this point onwards your Investment Balance decreases but your Protected Value, and therefore your annual Protected Payment, remains the same.

You retire after five years and transfer to an MLC MasterKey Pension Fundamentals account. You also start your protection term and start Protected Payments. Your investment has performed well and your Protected Value has increased to $400,000. This means you can take up to $20,000 each year (5% of $400,000) for the remainder of the term.

After 16 years, your Investment Balance runs out and no longer covers your Protected Payments. Because you chose to protect your MLC Balanced for a 20 year term you continue to receive a Protected Payment of $21,250 each year for the rest of the term.

Each year on your protection anniversary date, whenever your Investment Balance is more than your Protected Value, your Protected Value and Protected Payment amount increases and is locked in.

Investment Protection – the details

Which investment option can you choose for your protection?

You can only choose to protect one of the investment options listed in the table.

If you only wish to protect a portion of your Super or Pension account, the part of your account which is not protected must be invested in a different investment option(s).

If you have both a Super and Pension account with the same account number, you can't protect both at the same time.

Investment options you can protect.

To decide which investment option is right for you please refer to the Investment Menu.

What is your Protected Value?

Initially, your Protected Value is the amount of your first investment in the protected investment option plus any other amounts you add in the next 90 days less any withdrawals. This initial Protected Value doesn't include any gains or losses due to market movements.

Your Protected Value is reviewed each year on your protection anniversary.

If your Investment Balance is more than your Protected Value on your protection anniversary date, we'll increase your Protected Value to be equal to your Investment Balance on that date.

If your Investment Balance is less than your Protected Value, your Protected Value remains unchanged. This means you aren't affected by any negative investment performance.

Protected Capital

Your Protected Value is the minimum amount available in your account at the end of your protection term.

Protected Income

If you start your Protected Payments within 90 days of making your first investment, your initial Protected Value will be the same as your Investment Balance on your start date.

Your Protected Value is used to calculate your Protected Payments. For more information see page 11.

Protection anniversary

Your protection anniversary date is set when you make your first investment into your protected investment option.

Each year, on your protection anniversary, if your Investment Balance has increased, your Protected Value will be locked in at this larger amount. If your Investment Balance is less than your Protected Value, your protection will remain the same.

If you have Protected Income, your protection anniversary date will change to the date you start taking Protected Payments. On your protection anniversary your Protected Payments will increase if your Protected Value goes up, or remain the same if your Protected Value doesn't change.

Can you move between Super and Pension?

You can start your protection in Super and then move to Pension account. You can also move from Pension account back to Super. For more information about how you can move your protection between Super and Pension, please refer to the MLC MasterKey Super & Pension Fundamentals How to Guide at mlc.com.au/howto/mkspf

Investment Protection – the details

Adding to your protection

You need to make your first investment into your protected investment option within 90 days of your application. You then have 90 days from the date of your first investment to make additional investments (up to $1.5 million) to establish your initial Protected Value. If you'd like to protect more than $1.5 million please contact us on 132 652.

Additional investments are all amounts added to your protected investment option.

All additional investments will increase both your Investment Balance and Protected Value.

Any money you take out of your protected investment option reduces the amount you can add to your protection in Super after the 90 days. For more information, please see page 12.

You can add to the part of your account that is not protected at any time (subject to super and pension restrictions).

Protected Capital

If you choose to take up the Additional Investment option when you apply for protection, you can add to your Investment Balance after the first 90 days. You can add up to 15% of your initial Protected Value each year from your protection anniversary date. This is referred to as your annual investment limit and is shown by logging into your account at mlc.com.au

The Additional Investment option is only available in Super. If you move to Pension or from Pension back to Super, this option is no longer available and the additional fee will no longer apply. The Additional Investment option must be selected at the time you apply for protection and can't be added or removed once your protection has started.

Protected Income

You can add up to 30% of your initial Protected Value to your protected investment option each anniversary year. This is referred to as your annual investment limit and is shown by logging into your account at mlc.com.au

You can't add to your protection once your Protected Payments start, even if you are within the 90 days from your first investment in your protected investment option.

Your annual investment limit can change

Any amounts you take out of your protected investment option can reduce your annual investment limit. This includes income payments (above the Protected Payment amount for Protected Income), lump sum withdrawals, switches to other investment options, Adviser service fees, insurance premiums and taxes.

For example:

Let's say your Investment Balance is $200,000 and your annual investment limit is $30,000.

You withdraw $50,000. This reduces your Investment Balance by $50,000 to $150,000. It also means the amount you can add to your protection from this point forward is reduced by $7,500. This is calculated as follows:

- Divide your withdrawal amount by your Investment Balance. This provides the percentage by which your annual investment limit is reduced $50,000 / $200,000 = 25% then
- reduce the current investment limit by this percentage, ie $30,000 x 25% = $7,500
  $30,000 – $7,500= $22,500

The new amount you can add to your protection is $22,500.

Investment Protection – the details

Protected Payments (Protected Income only)

The amount you can take each year is a set percentage of your Protected Value. This set percentage is based on your term as shown in the table below.

If you take out more than your Protected Payment, your Protected Value and your future Protected Payment amount will reduce.

Term	Each year your Protected Payment amount will be:
10 years	10% of your Protected Value
20 years	5% of your Protected Value

Investment Protection – the details

You can choose when you take your Protected Payments during the year. You can also choose to take more or less than the Protected Payment amount available to you.

If you take more:

- your Protected Value decreases, and this will reduce your Protected Payments in the future. For more information see How taking out money affects your protection on page 12.

If you take less:

- the difference is transferred from your protected investment option to MLC Cash on or before your protection anniversary. Any money we transfer to MLC Cash isn't protected. For more information about MLC Cash, please refer to the Investment Menu.

Choose how you take your Protected Payments

You can choose to take your Protected Payments throughout the year as:

- part of your pension paid to your nominated bank account
- a switch into another investment option within your Super and Pension account, or
- other payments such as insurance premiums, tax payments and Adviser service fees.

Any Protected Payment amounts you don't take will be switched from your protected investment option into MLC Cash.

If your Investment Balance reaches the $200 minimum amount (please see Maintaining a minimum balance on page 12) your Protected Payments will be paid monthly (instead of annually) to MLC Cash for the remainder of your term.

Government minimums (Protected Income only)

The government has rules about the minimum amount you must take out each year as income once you start your pension. These minimums are calculated on your total Pension account balance. For more information about how the government minimum income amounts are calculated, please refer to the MLC MasterKey Super & Pension Fundamentals How to Guide at mlc.com.au/howto/mkspf

If the government minimum amount based on your protected investment option is more than your Protected Payment amount, you can take the extra amount from your protected Investment Balance without affecting your Protected Value.

This will reduce your Investment Balance.

Government minimums may change from time to time. For more information, go to ato.gov.au

Maintaining a minimum balance

You must have a balance in your protected investment option to maintain your protection. If you withdraw your entire Investment Balance, this will cancel your protection.

For Protected Income, if your balance goes below $200 we'll pay your Protected Payments into MLC Cash each month.

Accessing your Investment Balance

You can take money out of your protected investment option at any time (subject to normal super and pension restrictions). How this affects your protection depends on the type of protection you choose.

- Protected Capital– you can take out up to 15% of your Investment Balance on your most recent anniversary date each year when you're in Pension. This is called your annual withdrawal limit.
- Protected Income – you can take out up to your Protected Payment amount each year when you're in Pension without affecting your Protected Value.

For more information, refer to How taking out money affects your protection on this page.

How fees affect your Investment Balance and Protected Value

Protection fees and administration fees and costs, including investment management fees and costs won't reduce your Protected Value.

Other fees, such as Adviser service fees and insurance premiums will reduce your Protected Value depending on whether:

- your account is in Super or Pension
- you have Protected Capital or Protected Income, or
- your Investment Balance is more, or less, than your Protected Value.

How taking out money affects your protection

If you take money out of your protected investment option, your Investment Balance reduces by the amount you take out.

Generally, your Protected Value will reduce by the amount you take out or by the percentage of the amount you take out from your Investment Balance, whichever is greater. The exceptions are:

- If you have Protected Income and have started taking your Protected Payments, for any amounts you take out up to your Protected Payment amount, your Protected Value remains the same. The general rule then applies for any amounts you take out above your Protected Payment.
- If you have Protected Capital in Pension, for any amounts you take out up to your annual withdrawal limit, your Protected Value reduces by the amount you take out. The general rule then applies for any amounts you take out above your annual withdrawal limit.

Investment Protection – the details

Examples

If you have Protected Capital in Super, or have Protected Income and have not yet started your Protected Payments

Example 1 - When your investment Balance is equal to or more than your Protected Value

Let's say your Investment Balance is $200,000 and your Protected Value is $180,000. You take out $40,000 from your protected investment option. This reduces both your Protected Value and your Investment Balance by $40,000.

This means:

- your new Investment Balance is $200,000 – $40,000 = $160,000, and
- your new Protected Value is $180,000 – $40,000 = $140,000.

Example 2 – When your Investment Balance is less than your Protected Value

Let's say your Investment Balance is $200,000 and your Protected Value is $220,000. You take out $40,000 from your protected investment option. This reduces your Investment Balance by $40,000 and your Protected Value by $44,000.

The new Protected Value is $176,000, calculated as follows:

- your withdrawal amount is calculated as a percentage of your Investment Balance $40,000 / $200,000 = 20%, then
- the Protected Value is then reduced by this percentage, ie
  $220,000 x 20% = $44,000
  $220,000 – $44,000 = $176,000.

If you have Protected Capital in Pension

Example 3 – When you take out less than or up to your withdrawal limit

Let's say your Investment Balance is $400,000 and your Protected Value is $430,000. So your annual withdrawal limit is $60,000 ($400,000 x 15% = $60,000).

You take out your withdrawal limit of $60,000.
This means:

- your new Investment Balance is $400,000 – $60,000 = $340,000, and
- your new Protected Value is $430,000 – $60,000 = $370,000.

Investment Protection – the details

Example 4 – When you take out more than your withdrawal limit
and your Investment Balance is equal to or more than your Protected Value	and your Investment Balance is less than your Protected Value
Let's say your Investment Balance is $450,000 and your Protected Value is $430,000. You have already taken out your annual withdrawal limit for the year. You take out a further $10,000. This means: • your new Investment Balance is $450,000 – $10,000 = $440,000, and • your new Protected Value is $430,000 – $10,000 = $420,000.	Let's say your Investment Balance is $350,000 and your Protected Value is $430,000. You have already taken out your annual withdrawal limit for the year. You take out a further $35,000. This means: • Your new Investment Balance is $350,000 - $35,000 = $315,000 Your new Protected Value is $387,000, calculated as follows: • The withdrawal amount is calculated as a percentage of your Investment Balance $35,000 / $350,000 = 10%, • Your Protected Value is then reduced by this percentage, ie $430,000 x 10% = $43,000 $430,000 – $43,000 = $387,000

If you have Protected Income and have started your Protected Payments

Example 5 – When you take out less than or up to your Protected Payment amount
Let's say your Investment Balance is $380,000 and your Protected Value is $400,000. You choose a 10-year term and your Protected Payment is $40,000 each year (10% of your Protected Value). You take out your withdrawal limit of $40,000. This means: • your new Investment Balance is $380,000 – $40,000 = $340,000, and • your new Protected Value remains the same at $400,000.

Investment Protection – the details

Example 6 – When you take out more than your Protected Payment
and your Investment Balance is equal to or more than your Protected Value	and your Investment Balance is less than your Protected Value
Let's say your Investment Balance is $340,000 and your Protected Value is $320,000. You have already taken your Protected Payment for the year ($32,000 – 10% of your Protected Value). You take out a further $10,000. This reduces both your Investment Balance and Protected Value by $10,000. This means: • your new Investment Balance will be $340,000 - $10,000 = $330,000 • your new Protected Value is $320,000 – $10,000 = $310,000, and • your new Protected Payment is, $310,000 x 10% = $31,000 pa.	Let's say your Investment Balance is $340,000 and your Protected Value is $400,000. You have already taken your Protected Payment for the year ($40,000 – 10% of your Protected Value). You take out a further $17,000. This reduces both your Investment Balance and Protected Value by different amounts. This means: • your new Investment Balance is $340,000 - $17,000 = $323,000, and • your new Protected Value is $380,000, calculated as follows: • Your withdrawal amount is calculated as a percentage of your Investment Balance $17,000 / $340,000 = 5%. • Your Protected Value is then reduced by this percentage, ie $400,000 x 5% = $20,000 $400,000 – $20,000 = $380,000. • In turn, your Protected Payment now needs to be based on your reduced Protected Value $380,000 x 10% = $38,000 pa.

Investment Protection – the details

Protection fees

Your protection fee is based on the type and term of your protection, the investment option you've chosen, your Investment Balance, and any optional extras you choose.

It's deducted monthly in arrears from your Investment Balance and is in addition to other fees detailed in the PDS and Investment Menu.

When your account has MLC MasterKey Investment Protection, administration fees and costs are deducted on a pro rata basis rather than from just the investment option of your choice. Protection fees, administration fees and costs and investment fees and costs (including transaction costs) won't reduce your Protected Value, but they will reduce your Investment Balance.

We may vary our fees without your consent but we'll give you at least 30 days' notice of any increase in fees. For more information on these changes, please see page 4, 'Changes we may need to make to your protection'.

The Key Pension Rules

Your Pension account can be opened under both transition to retirement or retirement pension rules.

Transition to Retirement (TTR) pensions

TTR pensions allow members who have reached their preservation age to access their super benefits as a regular income stream while still in the workforce. When you start a TTR pension you're in the pre-retirement phase.

Once you meet an eligible condition of release your TTR pension moves into the retirement phase.

Retirement pension

Retirement pensions allow members who have satisfied an eligible condition of release to access their super as a regular income stream. Retirement pensions are always in the retirement phase.

Features of your account when you're in pre-retirement phase:

- a minimum and maximum payment limit applies to pension payments made from your account
- you generally cannot withdraw a lump sum from a TTR pension until you satisfy an eligible condition of release. Please see Additional pension payments and withdrawals on page 11 for exceptions that may be applicable.
- investment earnings are taxed at a rate of up to 15%.

Features of your account when you're in retirement phase:

- your investment earnings are tax exempt in the fund
- you're not subject to a maximum pension payment limit (only a minimum)
- there are no withdrawal limits (subject to your remaining account balance)
- the pension balance is now assessed against your Transfer Balance Cap (refer to Transfer Balance Cap on page 5)
- a one-off Pension Bonus (if eligible).

For more information on the tax treatment of your TTR pension, please read the 'How super is taxed' section in the PDS.

pre-retirement phase
You're in the pre-retirement phase if you reach preservation age and are under age 65 and you haven't yet notified us that you've met one of the eligible conditions of release.
retirement phase
You're in the retirement phase once you reach age 65 or you notify us that you've met one of the other eligible conditions of release.

Important Terms Explained

Eligible conditions of release

Generally, an eligible condition of release is a condition that allows you access to your super savings. To be eligible, you must meet a condition of release, such as:

- reaching age 65
- reaching preservation age and permanently retiring
- ceasing an employment arrangement on or after the age of 60
- reaching preservation age and starting a transition-to retirement pension
- becoming permanently incapacitated, or
- having a terminal medical condition,

(as those terms are defined by the law).

For further information visit ato.gov.au.

If you have a TTR pension in the pre-retirement phase, you need to notify us once you meet an eligible condition of release (unless you turn age 65).

Please note, when you reach age 65, investment earnings automatically become tax exempt without you having to notify us. For all other eligible conditions of release, the investment earnings will only become exempt when you notify us.

Preservation age

Preservation age is between age 55 and 60 depending on your date of birth. If you are born on or after 1 July 1964, your preservation age is 60.

Transfer Balance Cap

A limit applies to the amount that can be transferred to the retirement phase to support superannuation income streams. The limit is known as the Transfer Balance Cap. The general transfer balance cap is $2.1 million in 2026/27 and may be indexed in future years. Individuals who commenced a retirement phase income stream prior to 1 July 2026 may have a personal transfer balance cap of between $1.6 million and $2.1 million.

This cap applies to all retirement phase superannuation income streams that you have from all providers. TTR pensions in pre-retirement phase are excluded until these move into retirement phase. Individuals who exceed their cap may be subject to excess transfer balance tax and may be required to withdraw or transfer the excess back into the accumulation phase.

Further information can be found at ato.gov.au or your account at my.gov.au

About your account

How to open an account

To open your Pension account, you need to complete the application form attached to the PDS or available online at mlc.com.au. The application form allows you (if you're eligible) to:

- choose if you wish to have all or part of your super converted to pension
- consolidate and contribute to your super prior to starting your pension
- choose the amount of your regular pension payment (subject to limits set out in legislation)
- select an investment strategy specific to your retirement needs
- protect one investment option with Investment Protection
- nominate a beneficiary in the event of your death.

Tax File Number (TFN) notification

You should complete a TFN Declaration form if you commence an income stream prior to 60 years of age. If you're under age 60 and haven't provided a valid TFN, we're required to deduct tax at the top marginal tax rate (plus Medicare Levy for Australian residents) from any taxable payments made to you from your account including pension payments. We may send your TFN to the ATO to assist them in locating any unclaimed or lost superannuation benefits.

Pension refresh

You can't add further contributions or other amounts directly to your Pension account after your pension has started. However, you can transfer your Pension account balance back to your Super account, add more money (if eligible) and then recommence your pension. You can do this by completing the Pension refresh form available at mlc.com.au/pds/mkspf. Alternatively, you can start a separate pension.

You should seek professional advice in relation to any limitations and implications that may apply to this strategy.

Consolidating your Super to start your Pension

Keeping your super in one place makes sense. You can generally transfer the money you hold in other super accounts to an MLC Super account.

This gives you a single view of your money, helps you keep track of your investments and means you are only paying one set of fees for your super.

When it comes time to start your pension we'll first consolidate your money in a Super account. Once the last amount is received the consolidated balance will be transferred to your new Pension account under the same MLC account number.

You can use all or part of your Super account to start your pension.

We recommend that you seek financial advice before consolidating your super as your fees and benefits may be different in each account.

About your account

You can choose the amount of pension you receive, provided the amount meets the payment rules. This section describes the rules you must follow when making your choice.

Age-based minimums

Age at start of pension and each 1 July	Default minimum percentage of account balance (%)
Under 65	4
65-74	5
75-79	6
80-84	7
85-89	9
90-94	11
95 or more	14

More information is available at ato.gov.au

Choosing your pension payment amount

Once you start your pension, you may choose the amount you want to receive as a pension payment provided it meets the legislated age-based minimums (refer to the 'Age-based minimums' table below).

This amount depends on your age when you start your pension and is recalculated at 1 July each year, rounded to the nearest $10.

If you don't choose the amount of your pension payment, we will pay you the minimum amount.

The minimum amount is calculated on a pro rata basis in the financial year you start your pension. If you start your pension in June, you don't have to take any payments until the next financial year.

If you roll your pension back to super before the end of the financial year, the minimum amount is calculated on a pro rata basis on the day the money transfers out of your pension.

If you choose an amount (other than the minimum) you and can elect to have that amount increased annually, at a rate of up to 5% pa, or 10% pa.

Shortly after 1 July each year we'll send you a letter showing you the legislative age-based amount and annual amount paid to you as your pension payment for that financial year.

TTR pension in the pre-retirement phase

You must reach your preservation age to be able to draw a TTR pension in the pre-retirement phase. Once established, the rules are:

- your pension payment needs to meet the legislated age-based minimums (refer to table below), or a pro rata amount.
- a maximum pension payment of 10% of your account balance can be withdrawn in a financial year (until you meet an eligible condition of release). This amount is not calculated on a pro rata basis.

You should notify us if you retire before age 65 because the maximum payment limit will no longer apply, your investment earnings will not be taxed and your pension moves to retirement phase. Once in retirement phase, the pension is assessed against your Transfer Balance Cap.

MLC MasterKey Investment Protection

If you have MLC MasterKey Investment Protection, a notional value of the protection is included in your account balance when we calculate your prescribed minimum pension payment amount. This value doesn't form part of your withdrawal balance. We'll notify you each year of the notional value in your protection anniversary letter.

Before considering MLC MasterKey Investment Protection please speak with a financial adviser to determine if it's suitable for you.

For more information please refer to the MLC MasterKey Investment Protection Guide on mlc.com.au/pds/mkspf

Pension payment options

Payments will be made to your nominated bank account. Your nominated bank account must be held solely or jointly in your name. You can choose whether you'd like to receive the payments either:

- weekly
- fortnightly
- monthly
- quarterly
- half-yearly, or
- yearly.

You can nominate the date you prefer to receive your pension payment. We'll generally process the payment a few days earlier so the funds are paid to you on or before this date. Any applicable Pay As You Go tax will be deducted at the time this payment leaves us.

You can also choose which investment option (if you have multiple) that we take your pension payment from. If there isn't enough money remaining in your selected investment option to pay your pension payment, the payment will be made on a pro rata basis across all remaining investment options.

Your annual pension payment remains fixed at the amount nominated when you commenced your Pension, however, regular pension payments can be changed at any time. We will change pension payments if payments fall outside the Government:

- minimum legislated amounts; and
- maximum legislated amounts for TTR pension members in the pre- retirement phase.

Please note: 1 July pension payments are delayed for approximately 7 days to ensure that payments fall in the correct financial year to allow for the review of the minimum and maximum limits recalculation. You may also choose to have this payment paid in an alternative month.

About your account

Social security considerations

Any decisions you make regarding the level of pension payments and lump sum withdrawals you receive may impact your social security entitlements (if applicable).

We recommend you speak with your financial adviser or go to servicesaustralia.gov.au to find out more about the implications.

Example of minimum and maximum pension payments

Example 1

John starts a TTR pension with $200,000 on 1 July 2026. He is aged 60, so there will be no tax withheld as part of his pension payments. His minimum amount percentage factor for 2026-2027 is 4%. As a result, his minimum pension payment amount is:

$200,000 x 4% = $8,000 pa

$200,000 x 10% = $20,000 pa

John wants to commence his pension payments from 1 July 2026 and elects to take $16,000 a year as his pension payment on a monthly basis. John's pension payments for the financial year are simply his nominated payment amount ($16,000) divided by his monthly frequency (12). John will receive $1,333.34 each month for the remainder of the financial year.

On 23 November 2026 John notifies us that he has now retired. He will no longer be subject to a maximum pension payment limit.

Example 2

Jane starts a retirement pension with $200,000 on 1 March 2027. She is aged 60, so there will be no tax withheld as part of her pension payments. Her minimum amount percentage factor for 2026-2027 is 4%. As a result, her minimum pension payment amount is:

$200,000 x 4% = $8,000 pa

No Maximum Payment limit applies.

Jane elects a minimum monthly pro rata pension payment for the remainder of the financial year. The actual pension payable to Jane for the rest of the financial year is calculated as follows:

$8,000 (minimum pension payment amount) x 122 days (days left in the financial year) / 365

= $2,670 / 4, (which is the number of months remaining until the end of the financial year) = $667.50 per month.

The examples above are for illustrative purposes only and are not an estimate or guarantee of your account balance or the pension payments that will be made to you.

About your account

Pension Bonus

What is it?

The Pension Bonus is an additional one-off payment into your Pension account in retirement phase that you may be able to receive if you meet the eligibility requirements below.

How does it work?

When your Pension is in the retirement phase, investment earnings are tax exempt to the fund. If you're eligible, an amount equal to a portion of the estimated tax saved on assets transferred from pre-retirement phase to retirement phase will be paid into your Pension account as a one-off Pension Bonus shortly after your Pension starts in the retirement phase. It will be allocated according to your Pension investment allocation at the time the Pension starts in retirement phase. However, if you have a Pension investment allocation in Term Deposits, Investment Protection options, or suspended investment options, any applicable Pension Bonus will be paid into MLC Cash rather than these options. You can choose to switch part, or all, of the Pension Bonus payment into a different investment option at any time. We do not charge a fee for you to do this. However, buy-sell spreads may apply.

Who is eligible?

You'll be eligible for the Pension Bonus if:

- you transfer some or all of your MLC MasterKey super account[1] and/or Plum Super account, to start your first retirement phase Pension,
- you've invested in an MLC MasterKey super account[1] and/or Plum Super account for a continuous period of at least six months before starting your first retirement phase Pension,
- you haven't previously started a retirement phase Pension with us,
- you haven't previously received the Pension Bonus, and
- the rate set for the Pension Bonus is more than zero (see How the Pension Bonus is calculated).

How the Pension Bonus is calculated

The rate of Pension Bonus is based on the Fund's tax position at the date the bonus is processed. This rate is determined by the Trustee or its delegate. Processing will generally be within one month of you starting your first retirement phase Pension.

The Pension Bonus rate available for the investment options we offer is generally reviewed on a monthly basis and is adjusted to reflect the Fund's tax position. The Pension Bonus rate will be the same for all investment options including MLC Cash.

The Pension Bonus rate remains subject to change (including suspension or withdrawal) for the period between the date you start a Pension in retirement phase and the date your Pension Bonus is processed. This may be due to various factors including market volatility and regulatory changes. If this happens, you may not receive a Pension Bonus even if you're otherwise eligible for it. We'll let you know if a Pension Bonus has been paid into your Pension account. The latest available rate can be viewed at mlc.com.au/pensionrate

Pension Bonus Clawback

We reserve the right to clawback the Pension Bonus where you withdraw 50% (or more) of your starting retirement phase account balance within the first 12 months or due to regulatory changes.

Will the Pension Bonus count towards my transfer balance cap or age-based minimum payment calculation?

As the Pension Bonus is an earnings adjustment after your Pension starts in retirement phase, it won't count towards your Transfer Balance Cap.

Your Pension Bonus will only be included in the calculation of your age-based minimum pension payments from the financial year after the bonus is paid into your Pension account. For more details about 'Age-based minimums', refer to Age-based minimums on page 7.

[1] An MLC MasterKey Super account includes any account (including a TTR pension in the pre-retirement phase) that you may have within MLC MasterKey Super Fundamentals, MLC MasterKey Business Super or MLC MasterKey Personal Super.

Other information

Additional pension payments and withdrawals

If you require money in addition to your regular payments, you can request:

- an additional pension payment, or
- a withdrawal (provided you satisfy a relevant condition of release).

If you hold a retirement pension or a TTR pension in the retirement phase, there's no limit on the amount of withdrawals or additional pension payments you can receive each year. For more information on pension payments made from a TTR pension, please refer to ato.gov.au

You cannot use partial withdrawals to meet the legislative minimum pension payment requirement. If you request a full withdrawal, an additional pension payment may be made to you first, to ensure the minimum pro rata pension payment requirements are met for the financial year. For more information, go to ato.gov.au

It's important to be aware that any withdrawals will deplete your account more quickly and may impact your regular pension payment amounts and entitlement to social security benefits.

Generally, a TTR pension in the pre- retirement phase cannot be withdrawn as a lump sum unless you meet an eligible condition of release. However, you may be able to withdraw a lump sum from a TTR pension to:

- comply with a Family Law Act splitting agreement
- pay superannuation surcharge tax liability
- access any unrestricted non-preserved benefits
- give effect to a release authority for excess contributions, Division 293 Tax or Division 296 Tax.

When your pension payments stop

If your Pension account balance falls below $1,500, we'll contact you and pay out your balance to your nominated bank account

You can also choose to stop your pension at any time and transfer the money back to your Super account. If you have a retirement phase pension, you can also stop your pension and your balance will be paid to your nominated bank account.

If you request a full withdrawal, an additional pension payment may be made to you first, to ensure the minimum pro rata pension payment requirements are met for the financial year.

A death benefit paid as a pension to an eligible beneficiary will trigger a transfer balance cap assessment for that individual. Children receiving death benefit pensions will have a modified transfer balance cap. For further information go to ato.gov.au

What happens to your pension if you pass away?

Your pension in the Fund can be paid to your beneficiaries or estate if you pass away. We offer binding beneficiary nominations and reversionary beneficiary nominations. A binding beneficiary nomination, if valid, allows you to decide where your benefit is paid. A reversionary beneficiary nomination allows you to select who you would like to continue receiving your pension payments if you pass away.

Reversionary nomination

You can nominate a reversionary beneficiary to receive your pension in the event of your death. The beneficiary will receive the pension payments, or can opt to be paid the benefit as a lump sum.

A reversionary beneficiary must be your 'dependant' which includes:

- your spouse (including de facto and same sex),
- your child* (including an adopted child, a step child, an ex-nuptial child and a child of your spouse),
- a financial dependant, and
- a person in an interdependency relationship with you.

*A child reversionary beneficiary must be under 18 years of age, between 18 and 24 years of age and financially dependent, or a child of any age with a permanent disability that results in a substantially reduced capacity for communication, learning or mobility and the need for ongoing support services, at the time of your death. If the child is not disabled, the reversionary pension must be taken as a lump sum when the child reaches 25 years of age.

Binding nomination

A binding nomination states the proportion of your account balance you want paid to your 'dependants' or legal personal representative (being the executor of your will or the administrator of your estate). You can also amend the proportions or the nominated beneficiaries or revoke your nomination. If you make a valid binding nomination, the Trustee must pay your benefit to the beneficiaries you nominate. However, your nomination will become invalid if a nominated beneficiary is no longer your dependant at the date of your death - for example, if you nominated your spouse and later divorced, or your de facto spouse and later separated, and they no longer meet the definition of 'dependant'. A binding nomination does not lapse.

Dependants

Your 'dependants' include:

- your spouse (including de facto and same sex),
- your child (including an adopted child, a step-child, an ex-nuptial child and a child of your spouse),
- a person who is financially dependent on you at the time of your death, and
- a person in an interdependency relationship with you at the time of your death.

No nomination

It isn't compulsory to nominate a beneficiary to receive your death benefit. If you don't make a nomination and you pass away, we decide how to distribute your death benefit, taking into consideration the Trust Deed, relevant law and your personal circumstances at the time of your death.

What we do when we are notified of your death

You can view your beneficiary nomination(s) online at any time by accessing your account on mlc.com.au

Other information

Your Pension account balance (excluding Pension accounts with a reversionary nomination) will be switched into MLC Cash on the date we receive notification of your death.

If you have a Pension account with a reversionary nomination, the account balance will remain in your chosen investment option(s) and pension payments will be suspended. Upon completion of the claim, pension payments will restart and will be paid to your reversionary beneficiary.

If you've made a valid binding nomination, the account balance will be paid to your beneficiaries as you've directed.

The process involves the identification of any potential beneficiaries and communication with them. We then give careful consideration to what we believe is an appropriate distribution of the account balance, paying particular regard to your recorded preferences.

We'll switch off any Adviser service fees being paid to your adviser once we're notified of your death.

Restrictions on payment of death benefit pensions to children

If a child reversionary beneficiary is paid a pension upon your death, the pension can only continue to be paid until the child turns 25, at which point they must convert the remaining pension into a tax exempt lump sum, unless they have a permanent disability.

A child beneficiary receiving a death benefit is subject to a modified form of the Transfer Balance Cap.

For more information go to ato.gov.au

Tax applicable on death notification

Tax may be charged on amounts paid to your beneficiaries on your death. The tax payable will depend on the type of payment being made (lump sum or pension), timing and the dependency status of your beneficiaries.

If you held a TTR pension in the pre- retirement phase at the time of your death, tax on investment earnings will continue to apply until the benefit is paid to the beneficiary.

If the account is in the retirement phase when we receive notification of your death, investment earnings are tax exempt until the benefit is paid to the beneficiary.

This applies for all types of beneficiary nominations.

We recommend you seek advice from your financial adviser or registered tax agent prior to making a nomination.

Your investment strategy

I instruct the Trustee to allocate 100% initial and future contributions and rollovers as specified in the table below. In giving this instruction I have considered the information disclosed in the Investment Menu and Investment Protection Guide, if applicable, and determined that the investment option is appropriate for me.

- Initial investment – shows how you want your initial contributions and/or rollovers(s) allocated.
- Future investment – shows how you want your regular and one-off contributions allocated in the future. Please note, if you have Protected Capital you may only invest future contributions to your investment option if you have elected to pay for it.
- Draw down sequence for fees – shows the investment option(s) from which you want your fees to be deducted. Please number the investment option(s) in order of preference (1, 2, 3 etc). If this column is left blank, all fees will be deducted on a pro-rata basis in reference to the value held in each investment option.

If you have selected Investment Protection:

- your protection fee will be deducted from your protected investment option.
- you should be mindful that other fees, such as the Adviser Service Fee, may impact your Investment Protection. To avoid this, it is recommended that you nominate for the protected investment option to be placed last in your draw down sequence for fees.
- your administration fees will be deducted on a pro-rata basis.

Important information about beneficiary nominations

You should read the information on beneficiary nominations provided in the MLC MasterKey Super & Pension Fundamentals How to Guide available at mlc.com.au/howto/mkspf before making this application.

It is important that you review your nomination regularly, especially when your circumstances change (eg marriage, having children or any other life-changing event), to ensure your nomination is always up to date.

If you select Protected Income with the Spouse Benefit option, you can remove your existing beneficiary if your spouse status changes but you can't nominate a replacement spouse. You will continue to pay the additional fee in these circumstances as it is not possible to remove the Protected Income with the Spouse Benefit option once it has been selected.

We are unable to accept a beneficiary nomination from an authorised Parent/Guardian or representative on behalf of a Minor account holder under 15 years of age. Once the account holder turns 15 years of age they will be able to provide us with a beneficiary nomination.

Information on nominating a beneficiary

A beneficiary nomination allows you to nominate who you want your super to be paid to if you pass away. Nominations can also be made using your online account at mlc.com.au

Types of nominations

There are two options available to you regarding nominating a beneficiary for your super (including any insurance benefit) if you pass away.

You can make:

1. a binding nomination, or
2. no nomination.

1. Binding nomination

Making a binding nomination will ensure your benefit is paid as you have directed as long as the nomination is valid at the time of your death. This nomination stands even when your personal circumstances change such as:

- getting married,
- having children, or
- any other life-changing event occurs.

It is therefore, very important to regularly review your nomination to make sure it reflects your current personal circumstances.

2. No nomination

If you do not make a beneficiary nomination, the Trustee will decide who receives your death benefit, taking into consideration your dependants and personal circumstances at the time of your death.

Will my binding nomination expire?

A binding nomination is non-lapsing and will not expire.

Can my binding nomination become invalid?

Even if your binding nomination was valid when made, it will become invalid if:

- a nominated beneficiary is not a dependant or legal personal representative at the time of your death. For example, if:
  - you nominated your de facto and you subsequently separate, or
  - you nominated your husband or wife and you subsequently divorce,
- you cease to be a member of the Fund.

If your nomination is invalid at the time of your death, the Trustee may take your nomination into consideration but will not be bound by it.

Who can I nominate?

You may nominate any combination of your dependants or legal personal representative (your estate).

Your dependants include:

- your spouse (including de facto and same sex),
- your child (including an adopted child, a step-child, an ex-nuptial child and a child of your spouse),
- a person who is financially dependent on you at the time of your death, and
- a person in an interdependency relationship with you at the time of your death.

Who is a financial dependant?

Someone who is financially dependent on you at the time of your death. The definition of a dependant under superannuation legislation may be different to the definition used for tax purposes. For more information we recommend you speak with your financial or legal adviser.

What is an interdependency relationship?

Generally, an interdependency relationship may exist where two people (whether or not related by family):

- have a close personal relationship,
- live together,
- one or each of them provides the other with financial support, and
- one or each of them provides the other with domestic support and personal care.

Two persons may also have an interdependency relationship if they have a close personal relationship and the reason they do not satisfy all of the other conditions above is, that either or both of them suffer from a physical, intellectual or psychiatric disability, or they are temporarily living apart, for example, one of the persons is temporarily working overseas or in prison.

Legal personal representative (your estate)

Your legal personal representative is either the executor under your will or a person granted letters of administration for your estate if you die without having left a valid will.

Why can't you nominate other family members or friends?

The law only allows you to nominate other family members or friends who are financially dependent on you or have an interdependency relationship with you at the time of your death. However, you can choose to have your benefit paid to your estate where you can nominate your friends and/or other family members in your will to receive these funds.

Can I nominate more than one beneficiary?

There's no limit to the number of beneficiaries you can nominate, providing they are your dependants or legal personal representative.

If you wish to nominate more beneficiaries than this form allows, you can photocopy the form or download from mlc.com.au another blank form. Please ensure the total percentages nominated on both forms add up to 100% and submit them together.

Is tax payable on my death benefit?

The tax applicable on death benefits payable to beneficiaries depends on a number of factors. As the tax rules in relation to death benefits are complex, you should seek professional advice before making your nomination.

Keeping up to date

We recommend you review your nomination as your personal circumstances change, for example if you:

- marry, divorce or change partner, or
- become a parent, step parent or guardian.

You can make a new nomination or cancel your nomination at any time.

MLC MasterKey Investment Protection

Your spouse can only be nominated as your beneficiary for MLC MasterKey Investment Protection as an additional benefit at the time you apply for MLC MasterKey Investment Protection.

An investment in MLC MasterKey Super Fundamentals is subject to investment risk including possible delays in repayment and loss of income and capital invested. The underlying value of the assets of each investment option can rise and fall on a daily basis with fluctuations in the investment markets.

You need to be aware that where you have invested into an illiquid investment option, or an investment option you already hold has become illiquid, a period longer than 30 days may be required in which to effect a transfer out of that investment option.

Consolidate your super

Before you submit this application form, we recommend that you inform yourself about the consequences of a transfer of your benefits from your transferring fund (including when you are consolidating accounts within the MLC Super Fund).

The implications may include termination of any insurance cover in the transferring fund and deduction of fees and taxes from your benefit by the trustee of the transferring fund. If your transferred benefit contains a UK transfer amount, there may be UK tax implications. If you are requesting a partial transfer, you should also consider any remaining minimum balance requirements in the transferring fund.

You can ask the trustee of the transferring fund for information that you reasonably require for the purpose of understanding any benefit entitlements that you may have, including:

- information about any fees or charges that may apply to the proposed benefit transfer, and
- information about the effect of the proposed benefit transfer on any benefit entitlements you may have.

You should only submit this form if you have obtained any information you reasonably require, or you do not require such information.

By signing and submitting this application form, you request the transfer of your super benefit as set out in this form and authorise the Trustee and the trustee of the transferring fund to give effect to this transfer (including by sharing any information about your benefit in the transferring fund necessary to effect this transfer).

NAB Term Deposits

NAB Term Deposits are invested for a fixed term.

Early access to part or all of your investment in a NAB Term Deposit prior to maturity will require 31 days' notice, in addition to the Trustee processing time, and will potentially be subject to a reduced amount of interest to offset the costs to NAB of the early withdrawal.

Throughout the duration of your Term Deposits, a minimum of 10% of your super account balance is required to be maintained in other investment option(s) for fees and other costs, plus a sufficient amount to cover one-off withdrawals. You should be aware that one-off withdrawal requests that reduce the minimum of your other investment option(s) below 10% of your super account balance may not be processed.

Investment strategy

100% of your initial and future contributions and rollovers will be allocated by the Trustee in the manner you have specified in Question 15.

It is important that you understand the risks for your selected investment option and consider the information disclosed in the Investment Menu and Investment Protection Guide, to determine whether the investment option(s) are appropriate for you.

Investment Protection

If you choose the MLC MasterKey Investment Protection, the protection doesn't start until the Trustee has accepted your application.

Before selecting this option, it is important that you consider the information disclosed in the Investment Protection Guide to determine whether Investment Protection is appropriate for you.

- if your financial adviser or their Dealer Group instructs the Trustee to change your named financial adviser (e.g. if the financial adviser sells their business), you authorise the Trustee to continue to honour the Adviser Service Fee arrangement and accept instructions from the new named financial adviser, subject to any express instruction you give to the contrary.

Except to the extent that the Trustee (or its agents, employees, officers or contractors) has caused or contributed to loss to you by negligence, fraud or wilful default, the Trustee has no liability to you for acting on your financial adviser's requests or instructions, or in reliance on information provided by your financial adviser or their Dealer Group.

Important information

A limit applies to the amount that can be transferred to the retirement phase to support superannuation income streams. The limit is known as the Transfer Balance Cap. The general transfer balance cap is $2.1 million in 2026/27 and may be indexed in future years. Individuals who commenced a retirement phase income stream prior to 1 July 2026 may have a personal transfer balance cap of between $1.6 million and $2.1 million. Further information can be found at ato.gov.au or your account at my.gov.au. This cap applies to all your retirement phase superannuation income streams that you have from all providers. Individuals who exceed their cap may be subject to excess transfer balance tax and will be required to withdraw or transfer the excess back into the accumulation phase. Pensions also count towards your 'total superannuation balance' which is relevant when working out your eligibility for making various contributions and receiving certain superannuation tax concessions. For more information please visit ato.gov.au

Before sending this Application Form to us, please check that you have completed:

- all the questions in the Application Form (as appropriate) by printing clearly in the spaces provided and have signed the relevant sections;
- the Notice of intent to claim or vary a deduction for personal super contributions form (if required); and
- the Tax File Number Declaration form (if required), refer to Question 2.

Tax File Number (TFN)

MLC is authorised to collect and disclose your TFN under the superannuation and taxation laws. MLC may use your TFN only for lawful purposes, including applying withholding taxes on payments, reporting to the ATO or identifying or combining your superannuation benefits. These purposes may change in the future as a result of changes to the law.
Your TFN will be disclosed to the ATO and may be disclosed to the trustee of another superannuation fund or RSA provider if your benefits are transferred, unless you request in writing for it not to be disclosed to any other super/RSA provider.
It's optional for you to provide your TFN but if we don't have it - we can't accept personal after-tax contributions. We'll only be able to accept employer contributions, which may be taxed at the highest marginal tax rate (plus the Medicare Levy), rather than 15%. We may also have to deduct more tax when you start drawing down your super benefit. You may also miss out on government co-contributions.
If you are under 60, you need to complete and send to us a Tax File Number Declaration. If we don't receive this form, we may be required to withhold tax at the top tax rate (plus the Medicare Levy) from your pension payments.
You should be aware that:

- if you have more than one pension account and are under age 60, the tax-free threshold can only be claimed on one pension account
- if you are claiming the Seniors or Pensioners Tax Offset or the zone, overseas forces or invalid and invalid carer tax offset, you will need to complete a Withholding Declaration, available from the ATO at ato.gov.au, and
- we will verify your TFN with the ATO.

Your investment strategy

26.

I instruct the Trustee to allocate 100% of my pension account balance, and set my draw down payments as specified in the table below. In giving this instruction I have considered the information disclosed in the Investment Menu and Investment Protection Guide, if applicable, and determined that the investment option is appropriate for me.

- Initial investment – shows how you want your initial investment(s) allocated.
- Draw down strategy for income payments – shows the proportion (%) of your income payments to be deducted from each investment option.
- Draw down sequence for income payments – shows the order in which you want your income payments to be deducted from each investment option.
- If neither a draw down strategy or sequence is nominated, your income payments will be deducted on a pro-rata basis in reference to the value held in each investment option.
- Draw down sequence for fees – shows the investment option(s) from which you want your fees to be deducted. Please number the investment option(s) in order of preference (1, 2, 3 etc). If this column is left blank, all fees will be deducted on a pro-rata basis in reference to the value held in each investment option.

If you're applying for a Transition to Retirement pension:

– the draw down sequence for fees you nominate in this table will also apply to your super account (refer to How to Guide for more information).

If you have selected Investment Protection:

– your protection fee will be deducted from your protected investment option.

– you should be mindful that other fees, such as the Adviser Service Fee, may impact your Investment Protection. To avoid this, it is recommended that you nominate for the protected investment option to be placed last in your draw down sequence for fees.

– your administration fees will be deducted on a pro-rata basis.

Important information about beneficiary nominations

You should read the information on beneficiary nominations provided in the MLC MasterKey Super & Pension Fundamentals How to Guide available at mlc.com.au/howto/mkspf before making this application.

It is important that you review your nomination regularly, especially when your circumstances change (eg marriage, having children or any other life-changing event), to ensure your nomination is always up to date.

If you select Protected Income with the Spouse Benefit option, you can remove your existing beneficiary if your spouse status changes but you can't nominate a replacement spouse. You will continue to pay the additional fee in these circumstances as it is not possible to remove the Protected Income with the Spouse Benefit option once it has been selected.

Information on a nominating beneficiary

A beneficiary nomination allows you to nominate who you want your pension to be paid to if you pass away. Nominations can also be made using your online account at mlc.com.au

Types of nominations

There are three options available to you regarding nominating a beneficiary for your pension if you pass away.

You can make:

1. a binding nomination, or
2. a reversionary nomination, or
3. no nomination.

1. Binding nomination

Making a binding nomination will ensure your benefit is paid as you have directed as long as the nomination is valid at the time of your death. This nomination stands even when your personal circumstances change such as:

- getting married,
- having children, or
- any other life-changing event occurs.

It is therefore, very important to regularly review your nomination to make sure it reflects your current personal circumstances.

2. Reversionary nomination

You can nominate a beneficiary to receive your pension if you pass away. Generally, a beneficiary may receive the income payments, or can opt to be paid the benefit as a lump sum. A reversionary beneficiary must be your dependant which includes:

- your spouse (including de facto and same sex),
- your child* (including an adopted child, a step child, an ex-nuptial child and a child of your spouse),
- a person who is financially dependent on you at the time of your death, and
- a person in an interdependency relationship with you, at the time of your death.

*A child reversionary beneficiary at the time of your death must be:

- under 18 years of age,
- between 18 and 24 years of age and financially dependent, or
- a child of any age with a permanent disability that results in a substantially reduced capacity for communication, learning or mobility and the need for ongoing support services.

If the child is not disabled, the reversionary pension must be taken as a lump sum when the child reaches 25 years of age.

3. No nomination

If you do not make a beneficiary nomination, the Trustee will decide who receives your death benefit, taking into consideration your dependants and personal circumstances at the time of your death.

Will my binding nomination expire?

A binding nomination is non-lapsing and will not expire.

Can my binding nomination become invalid?

Even if your binding nomination was valid when made, it will become invalid if:

- a nominated beneficiary is not a dependant or legal personal representative at the time of your death. For example, if:
  - you nominated your de facto and you subsequently separate, or
  - you nominated your husband or wife and you subsequently divorce,
- you cease to be a member of the Fund.

If your nomination is invalid at the time of your death, the Trustee may take your nomination into consideration but will not be bound by it.

Who can I nominate?

You may nominate any combination of your dependants or legal personal representative (your estate).

Your dependants include:

- your spouse (including de facto and same sex),
- your child (including an adopted child, a step-child, an ex-nuptial child and a child of your spouse),
- a person who is financially dependent on you at the time of your death, and
- a person in an interdependency relationship with you at the time of your death.

Who is a financial dependant?

Someone who is financially dependent upon you at the time of your death.

The definition of a dependant under superannuation legislation may be different to the definition which is used for tax purposes. For more information on estate planning we recommend you speak with your financial or legal adviser.

What is an interdependency relationship?

Generally, an interdependency relationship may exist where two people (whether or not related by family):

- have a close personal relationship,
- live together,
- one or each of them provides the other with financial support, and
- one or each of them provides the other with domestic support and personal care.

Two persons may also have an interdependency relationship if they have a close personal relationship and the reason they do not satisfy all of the other conditions above is, that either or both of them suffer from a physical, intellectual or psychiatric disability, or they are temporarily living apart, for example, one of the persons is temporarily working overseas or in prison.

Legal personal representative (your estate)

Your legal personal representative is either the executor under your will or a person granted letters of administration for your estate if you die without having left a valid will.

Why can't you nominate other family members or friends?

The law only allows you to nominate individuals who are financially dependent on you or have an interdependency relationship with you at the time of your death. However, you can choose to have your benefit paid to your estate where you can nominate your friends and/or other family members in your will to receive these funds.

Can I nominate more than one beneficiary?

There's no limit to the number of beneficiaries you can nominate, providing they are your dependants or legal personal representative.

If you wish to nominate more beneficiaries than this form allows, you can photocopy the form or download from mlc.com.au another blank form. Please ensure the total percentages nominated on both forms add up to 100% and submit them together.

Is tax payable on my death benefit?

The tax applicable on death benefits payable to beneficiaries depends on a number of factors. As the tax rules in relation to death benefits are complex, you should seek professional advice before making your nomination.

Keeping up to date

We recommend you review your nomination as your personal circumstances change, for example if you:

- marry, divorce or change partner, or
- become a parent, step parent or guardian.

You can make a new nomination or cancel your nomination at any time.

MLC MasterKey Investment Protection

Your spouse can only be nominated as your beneficiary for MLC MasterKey Investment Protection as an additional benefit at the time you apply for MLC MasterKey Investment Protection.

You should only submit this form if you have obtained any information you reasonably require, or you do not require such information.

NAB Term Deposits

NAB Term Deposits are invested for a fixed term.

Early access to part or all of your investment in a NAB Term Deposit prior to maturity will require 31 days' notice, in addition to the Trustee processing time, and will potentially be subject to a reduced amount of interest to offset the costs to NAB of the early withdrawal.

Throughout the duration of your Term Deposits, a minimum of 10% of your super account balance is required to be maintained in other investment option(s) for fees and other costs, plus a sufficient amount to cover one-off withdrawals. You should be aware that one-off withdrawal requests that reduce the minimum of your other investment option(s) below 10% of your super account balance may not be processed.

Investment strategy

100% of your pension account balance, and draw down payments will be allocated by the Trustee in the manner you have specified in Question 26.

It is important that you understand the risks for your selected investment option and consider the information disclosed in the Investment Menu and Investment Protection Guide, to determine whether the investment option(s) are appropriate for you.

Except to the extent that the Trustee (or its agents, employees, officers or contractors) has caused or contributed to loss to you by negligence, fraud or wilful default, the Trustee has no liability to you for acting on your financial adviser's requests or instructions, or in reliance on information provided by your financial adviser or their Dealer Group.

Important information

This is NOT an application for a tax file number.

Your TFN is confidential, and the Trustee is authorised to collect and disclose your TFN under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 and Privacy Act 1988. Pension refresh / pension to super

MLC MasterKey Super & Pension Fundamentals

We can only accept your request if you have an existing MLC MasterKey Pension Fundamentals account and the form is correctly completed.

Before signing this Form, please ensure that you have read and understood the current MLC MasterKey Super & Pension Fundamentals Product Disclosure Statement, Fee Brochure, Insurance Guide, Investment Menu, Investment Protection Guide and Pension Guide. You should consider all of these documents before making a final decision to transfer your account balance from MLC Masterkey Pension Fundamentals to MLC Masterkey Super Fundamentals.

Important information

A limit applies to the amount that can be transferred to the retirement phase to support superannuation income streams. The limit is known as the Transfer Balance Cap. The general transfer balance cap is $2.1 million in 2026/27 and may be indexed in future years. Individuals who commenced a retirement phase income stream prior to 1 July 2026 may have a personal transfer balance cap of between $1.6 million and $2.1 million. Further information can be found at ato.gov.au or your account at my.gov.au. This cap applies to all your retirement phase superannuation income streams that you have from all providers. Individuals who exceed their cap may be subject to excess transfer balance tax and will be required to withdraw or transfer the excess back into the accumulation phase. Pensions also count towards your 'total superannuation balance' which is relevant when working out your eligibility for making various contributions and receiving certain superannuation tax concessions. For more information please visit ato.gov.au

Before sending this form to the Trustee, please check that you have completed all questions on the form (as appropriate) by printing clearly in the spaces provided and have signed the relevant sections.

If you would also like to switch your current holdings in either your super or pension account please attach a Switch and Investment strategy form available at mlc.com.au to this application. Otherwise, your existing holdings will carry across from each account to minimise buy-sell spread costs.

Please forward everything to: MLC, PO Box 200, North Sydney NSW 2059

Important information about beneficiary nominations

You should read the information on beneficiary nominations provided in the MLC MasterKey Super & Pension Fundamentals How to Guide available at mlc.com.au/howto/mkspf before making this application.

It is important that you review your nomination regularly, especially when your circumstances change (eg marriage, having children or any other life-changing event), to ensure your nomination is always up to date.

If you select Protected Income with the Spouse Benefit option, you can remove your existing beneficiary if your spouse status changes but you can't nominate a replacement spouse. You will continue to pay the additional fee in these circumstances as it is not possible to remove the Protected Income with the Spouse Benefit option once it has been selected.

Information on nominating a beneficiary

A beneficiary nomination allows you to nominate who you want your super or pension to be paid to if you pass away. Nominations can also be made using your online account at mlc.com.au

Types of nominations

There are three options available to you regarding nominating a beneficiary for your super (including any insurance benefit) or pension if you pass away.

You can make:

1. a binding nomination, or
2. a reversionary nomination (MLC MasterKey Pension Fundamentals accounts only), or
3. no nomination.

1. Binding nomination

Making a binding nomination will ensure your benefit is paid as you have directed as long as the nomination is valid at the time of your death. This nomination stands even when your personal circumstances change such as:

- getting married,
- having children, or
- any other life-changing event occurs.

It is therefore, very important to regularly review your nomination to make sure it reflects your current personal circumstances.

2. Reversionary nomination

You can nominate a beneficiary to receive your pension if you pass away. Generally, a beneficiary may receive the income payments, or can opt to be paid the benefit as a lump sum. A reversionary beneficiary must be your dependant which includes:

- your spouse (including de facto and same sex),
- your child* (including an adopted child, a step child, an ex-nuptial child and a child of your spouse),
- a person who is financially dependent on you at the time of your death, and
- a person in an interdependency relationship with you, at the time of your death.

*A child reversionary beneficiary at the time of your death must be:

- under 18 years of age,
- between 18 and 24 years of age and financially dependent, or
- a child of any age with a permanent disability that results in a substantially reduced capacity for communication, learning or mobility and the need for ongoing support services.

If the child is not disabled, the reversionary pension must be taken as a lump sum when the child reaches 25 years of age.

3. No nomination

If you do not make a beneficiary nomination, the Trustee will decide who receives your death benefit, taking into consideration your dependants and personal circumstances at the time of your death.

Will my binding nomination expire?

A binding nomination is non-lapsing and will not expire.

Can my binding nomination become invalid?

Even if your binding nomination was valid when made, it will become invalid if:

- a nominated beneficiary is not a dependant or legal personal representative at the time of your death. For example, if:
  - you nominated your de facto and you subsequently separate, or
  - you nominated your husband or wife and you subsequently divorce,
- you cease to be a member of the Fund.

If your nomination is invalid at the time of your death, the Trustee may take your nomination into consideration but will not be bound by it.

Who can I nominate

You may nominate any combination of your dependants or legal personal representative (your estate).

Your dependants include:

- your spouse (including de facto and same sex),
- your child (including an adopted child, a step-child, an ex-nuptial child and a child of your spouse),
- a person who is financially dependent on you at the time of your death, and
- a person in an interdependency relationship with you at the time of your death.

Who is a financial dependant?

Someone who is financially dependent on you at the time of your death. The definition of a dependant under superannuation legislation may be different to the definition used for tax purposes. For more information we recommend you speak with your financial or legal adviser.

What is an interdependency relationship?

Generally, an interdependency relationship may exist where two people (whether or not related by family):

- have a close personal relationship,
- live together,
- one or each of them provides the other with financial support, and
- one or each of them provides the other with domestic support and personal care.

Two persons may also have an interdependency relationship if they have a close personal relationship and the reason they do not satisfy all of the other conditions above is, that either or both of them suffer from a physical, intellectual or psychiatric disability, or they are temporarily living apart, for example, one of the persons is temporarily working overseas or in prison.

Legal personal representative (your estate)

Your legal personal representative is either the executor under your will or a person granted letters of administration for your estate if you die without having left a valid will.

Why can't you nominate other family members or friends?

The law only allows you to nominate other family members or friends who are financially dependent on you or have an interdependency relationship with you at the time of your death. However, you can choose to have your benefit paid to your estate where you can nominate your friends and/or other family members in your will to receive these funds.

Can I nominate more than one beneficiary?

There's no limit to the number of beneficiaries you can nominate, providing they are your dependants or legal personal representative.

If you wish to nominate more beneficiaries than this form allows, you can photocopy the form or download from mlc.com.au another blank form. Please ensure the total percentages nominated on both forms add up to 100% and submit them together.

Is tax payable on my death benefit?

The tax applicable on death benefits payable to beneficiaries depends on a number of factors. As the tax rules in relation to death benefits are complex, you should seek professional advice before making your nomination.

Keeping up to date

We recommend you review your nomination as your personal circumstances change, for example if you:

- marry, divorce or change partner, or
- become a parent, step parent or guardian.

You can make a new nomination or cancel your nomination at any time.

MLC MasterKey Investment Protection

Your spouse can only be nominated as your beneficiary for MLC MasterKey Investment Protection as an additional benefit at the time you apply for MLC MasterKey Investment Protection.

Preservation of funds

It is important that you understand that your contributions must be preserved within the superannuation system until you meet a condition of release and/or become eligible to access your superannuation benefit.

Understanding investment risk

An investment in MLC MasterKey Super & Pension Fundamentals is subject to investment risk including possible delays in repayment and loss of income and capital invested. The underlying value of the assets of each investment option can rise and fall on a daily basis with fluctuations in the investment markets.

You need to be aware that where you have invested into an illiquid investment option, or an investment option you already hold has become illiquid, a period longer than 30 days may be required in which to effect a transfer out of that investment option.

Outliving your pension

Your investment in MLC MasterKey Pension Fundamentals is not guaranteed for life and you may outlive your retirement savings. When this account balance is depleted, the pension payments will cease.
